

Showcasing our Marie Curie Fellows

A seminar series held by Ca' Foscari University Marie Skłodowska-Curie Fellows, organised by the School for International Education in collaboration with the International College and the International Research Office.

Semester I

November 19th, 11am

Sala Berengo, Ca' Foscari

Suzanne Blesic, "On memory in climate data"

Pauli Lappi, "Check please? Waste disposal payments in mining and nuclear power"

David Garcia Leon, "The implications of droughts for the European economy"

December 3rd, 4:30pm

Sala Berengo, Ca' Foscari

Alessandra Gilibert, "Before the agora. Civic community and public space in the ancient Near East"

December 12th, 4:30pm

Sala Berengo, Ca' Foscari

Panagiotis Athanasopoulos, "The Critical Edition of a Byzantine Translation: Problems and Perspectives"

