

PSECOMAC 2017

Workshop on Pseudo-Coordination and Multiple Agreement Constructions

Ca' Foscari University of Venice – Aula Baratto

Tuesday 2nd – Wednesday 3rd, May 2017

Programme

2nd May, 2017

9:30 – 10:00	Registration
10:00 – 11:00	a/bare finite complements in Southern Italian varieties: Mono-clausal vs bi-clausal syntax and a case study on the progressive. M. Rita Manzini (Università degli studi di Firenze)
11:00 – 11:40	Gone unexpectedly: Pseudo-Coordination and the expression of surprise in Sicilian. Silvio Cruschina (University of Vienna)
11:40 – 12:00	Coffee break
12:00 – 12:40	Present vs. Preterite Paradigms of the Pseudo-Coordination in Deliano. Vincenzo Nicolò Di Caro (Ca' Foscari University of Venice)
12:40 – 13:20	Analytic verb constructions in contact. M. Olimpia Squillaci (University of Cambridge)
13:20 – 14:30	Lunch
14:30 – 15:10	Theory-driven approaches and empirical advances. The case of multiple agreement in Southern Italian dialects. Anna Cardinaletti (Ca' Foscari University of Venice) Giuliana Giusti (Ca' Foscari University of Venice)
15:10 – 15:50	Pseudocoordination, Multiple Agreement Constructions, and Morphosyntactic Variation. Daniel Ross
15:50 – 16:20	Poster taster session
16:20 – 16:50	Poster session + Coffee break
16:50 – 17:30	Complex verb constructions in Ainu as predominantly biclausal structures. Anna Bugaeva (Tokyo University of Science)
17:30 – 18:30	External splits: a canonical typology. Greville Corbett (University of Surrey)
21:00	Social dinner

3rd May, 2017

9:30 – 10:30	Pseudo-coordination in a hybrid system: (parametric) insights from Afrikaans. Theresa Biberauer (University of Cambridge)
10:30 – 11:10	Two types of pseudo-coordination in English pose a learnability problem. Mark De Vos (Rhodes University)
11:10 – 11:50	SIT as a progressive marker in pseudocoordination? Daniel Ross (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign) Helge Lødrup (University of Oslo)
11:50 – 12:10	Coffee break
12:10 – 12:50	Pseudo-coordination in Scandinavian and Semitic involving a finite verb form and an infinitive. Janne Bondi Johannessen (University of Oslo) Lutz Edzard (University of Erlangen-Nürnberg and University of Oslo)
12:50 – 13:30	Partial versus Full Agreement in Turkish possessive and clausal DP-coordination. Deniz Tat (Leiden University) Jaklin Kornfilt (Syracuse University)
13:30 – 14:30	Lunch + Poster session
14:30 – 15:10	Norwegian pseudocoordinations with the verb drive 'carry on': Control, raising, grammaticalization. Helge Lødrup (University of Oslo)
15:10 – 15:50	On absence of serial adjectives. Moreno Mitrovic (University of Cyprus) Phoevos Panagiotidis (University of Cyprus)
15:50 – 16:30	Business meeting

Poster session:

- Adina Camelia Bleotu (University of Bucharest)
The properties of the '(a) lua și X' ('take and X') construction in Romanian. Evidence in favour of a more fine-grained distinction among pseudocoordinative structures.
- Moreno Mitrovic (University of Cyprus)
(Pseudo-) coordinations under logical closure.
- Masaharu Shimada (University of Tsukuba) and Akiko Nagano (Tohoku University)
Three functional positions for aspects: Evidence from Kyushu Japanese.
- Svatava Skodova (Institute of Czech Studies)
Pseudo-coordination of a verb jít/go in the syntax of contemporary Czech.
- Vincenzo Nicolò Di Caro and Asmaa El Hansali (Ca' Foscari University of Venice)
Multiple agreement verbal constructions with 'go' in the Arabic and Sicilian dialects.