English into Spanish Internship

The World Federation of Public Health Associations is currently looking for 2 Translator Interns for the International Office in Geneva, Switzerland.

The WFPHA is an international, non-profit, nongovernmental organization composed of over 130 associations member, mostly multidisciplinary national public health associations, and representing around 5 million public health professionals worldwide. WFPHA is accredited as an NGO in official relations with the World Health Organization (WHO). The Federation is also accredited to the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), holds consultation status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), and holds observer status with Codex Alimentarius of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations.

Key Responsibilities
- Translating projects in Public Health domain from English into Spanish.
- Translating recorded webinars in Public Health domain from English into Spanish.

Qualification and Experience
- Master student in Translation/Specialized Translation.
- Excellent command of English and Spanish.
- Knowledge and experience in using CAT tools.
- Knowledge of MS Office.
- Comfortable with new technologies.
- Eager to work within a multicultural and international environment.
- A good team player with a “can-do” attitude.
- Good at multi-tasking and working with strict deadlines.

Modality
Intern will work mainly remotely. Intern will be part of the WFPHA Translation Team and will get feedback from revisers of the team.

Compensation
The internship is unpaid. The organization does not cover re-location expenses and does not sponsor international student visas.

Period
Starts as soon as possible for a minimum of 3 months. The internship may be part-time or full-time.

Application Deadline
08 January 2024
How to Apply
If you are interested in applying for the internship, please send CV to Maria Mata:
maria.mata@wfpha.org