Title: The role of cultural heritage as incubator and accelerator of innovative entrepreneurship

WPM, WPT1, WPT2, WPT3, WPC

Abstract: It is widely expected that culture and heritage automatically inspire innovation and new creative entrepreneurship but research shows that this is rarely the case. It is therefore necessary to challenge and reinterpret the role of cultural and creative industries (CCIs) for regional development. The Interreg Central Europe project will expand and strengthen the role of cultural heritage sites, symbols and values by transforming them into "Smart Accelerators of Creative Heritage Entrepreneurship" (SACHE) based on a newly developed central European model.

The research project builds on the collaborative atmosphere that will be constructed in a preliminary mapping phase. The main objective is to develop a portfolio of value services to promote the Smart Accelerators of Creative Entrepreneurship services, fine tune it and disseminate it. The portfolio is composed of beneficiaries tools and methodologies that would support the practical implementation of business relationships between creative practitioners and cultural institutions. The service portfolio will be addressed to Cultural operators and Institutions, Creative practitioners Intermediaries, high-tech SMEs and public institution in charge of culture promotion. The portfolio development will be carried out through engaging, co-creation methods activities and exchange knowledge actions.
