Antonio Montefusco.

The fellowship is intended to provide the successful candidate with the opportunity to pursue his/her own research while benefiting from the range of expertise at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia.

Abstract

The Post-Doc Fellowship is intended to shed light, for the first time in an exclusive manner, on the work of the Dominican friar Bartolomeo di San Concordio. Active in Dante's age, he worked in the Dominican convent of Pisa and in Santa Maria Novella in Florence. Here he found himself in contact with a milieu where the use of the vernacular and the practice of translating was widespread. The research will focus on the works elaborated in the Florentine period, and in particular on the Ammaestramenti degli Antichi, autotranslation of a Latin text, in order to provide a new critical text and to understand the aims and recipients of the work.
