Description

The Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia invites applications for a fellowship in:

Title EN: The changing body and the care experience in visual arts in a comparative and cross-cultural perspective between Western and Mediterranean art.

SSD: LART-03: Storia dell'arte contemporanea

Abstract: The research envisages an analysis of the evolution of the meanings of illness and treatment through the study of the transformation of the representations of the body and of the relationships underlying it in the visual arts of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries, also in a comparative perspective with particular reference to the Europe and the Mediterranean. The study will have to provide a comparative and transcultural mapping of the artistic representations of illness and body care, of the transition from presentation to its manipulation and hybridization and will address the link between these transformations and the relational, emotional, social, family and political dimensions.

The research is funded by the Ministry of Education - Ministry of University and Research funding program “Progetti di rilevante interesse nazionale – Prin”, Call 2017.

The research may be carried out in English.

The fellowship is intended to provide the successful candidate with the opportunity to pursue his/her own research while benefiting from the range of expertise at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia.
