Description

The Department of Linguistic and Comparative Cultural studies at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia invites applications for a fellowship in:

Title: Migration as Arrival: inclusion, literature and writing for a project for secondary school of the Veneto region (Second part)

Scientific area: 10/L1, 10/M1

Abstract:

The project is the continuation of a work started in 2019. It's part of a wider IMPACT-VENETO (2018-2020) regional project of the FONDO ASILO, MIGRAZIONE E INTEGRAZIONE (FAMI) 2014-2020 (Asylum seekers, migration and integration) managed by the DSU, with the collaboration of the DSLCC and of the Center for the Humanities and Social Change. The project is about secondary school teacher training and student training on migrating families. Teachers and their students will be trained on the way storytelling and literary narration can help integration. The fellow, supported by the whole research group, will use (European and non European) contemporary literary texts to raise awareness of multicultural issues in schools: he or she will select appropriate readings and comment on them to the benefit of young readers. The fellow will also be involved in teachers' activities as planned by IMPACT-VENETO. He or she will monitor, summarize and disseminate the results of activities by means of digital tools.

The research may be carried out in English.

The fellowship is intended to provide the successful candidate with the opportunity to pursue his/her own research while benefiting from the range of expertise at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia.
