Description

The Department of Management at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia invites application for a two-years fellowship in Culture and creativity for teaching and digital learning, Project ERASMUS+ Call 2020 round 1 KA2 – Cooperation for Innovation and the Exchange of Good Practices - KA226 - PARTNERSHIPS FOR DIGITAL EDUCATION READINESS - 2020-1-IT02-KA226-HE-095528 – CUP H73D21000160002, under the supervision of prof. Fabrizio Panozzo, SSD SECS-P/07 (Business Administration and Accounting Studies).

Abstract: The two-year research project focuses on the intersection between digital transformation and cultural and creative approaches to management. Pursuing the objectives of the Erasmus + "Hi-Teach" project, of which our University is the leader, the research activity will expand to incorporate a broader reflection on the actual impact of digital theories and techniques on organizations whose business model is centered on knowledge, culture and creativity. The main task of the research fellow will therefore offer scientific support for the development of the contents and of the research and experimentation activities of the Hi-Teach project. The central focus will be on understanding the contribution that cultural and creative approaches can make to the innovation of teaching activities conducted in digital environments. More generally, the research fellow will be responsible for analyzing, with a evidence-based approach, the real impact of digital technologies in the cultural and creative sectors.

The research shall be carried out in Italian and English language. The fellowship is intended to provide the successful candidate with the opportunity to pursue his/her own research while benefiting from the range of expertise at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia.

Who can apply

Prospective candidates are expected to hold master's degree in Economics and Management of Arts and Cultural Activities (LM-76 - Environmental and Cultural Economics) and relevant experience on the research topic and scientific-professional curriculum suitable to the development of research activities related to the fellowship.
