abstract:

The researcher will have the task of carrying out studies, reports, analyses and evaluations in the field of studies of local/regional autonomy, fiscal federalism and differentiated regionalism, functional to the implementation of Title V of Part Two of the Constitution by the Veneto Region.

The Veneto Region has been involved for some time in the process of implementing differentiated regionalism, which began with the preparatory work and with the consultative referendum, on the 22nd of October 2017, when the majority of the population of Veneto voted affirmatively. Following the outcome of the referendum, with the start, on the 1st of December 2017, of negotiations with the Government. In consideration of the innovative nature and the complexity of the subject, with Article 18 of the regional law of the 25th of November 2019, no. 44, the Regional Observatory on Differentiated Autonomy was established at the Regional Council.

The research fellow will therefore support the Regional Council and in particular the Observatory on differentiated autonomy, contributing to a greater and more qualified knowledge of the subjects and topics covered, as well as to a more in-depth analysis and evaluation of the socio-economic and financial context of reference, with the aim of supporting the Region in the implementation process and in negotiations with the Government. The main activities will be: the gathering and systematization of data on local public finance and data on the social and economic context; the ideation of a set of indicators and benchmarks to compare Veneto to other regions; reporting and producing of thematic studies.
