Description

The Department of Asian and North African Studies at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia invites applications for a fellowship in:

Title: “The acquisition of Chinese resultative compounds by Italian L1 learners”

Scientific sector: L-OR/21

Scientific supervisor and tutor: Prof.ssa Bianca Basciano

Duration: 12 months

Abstract:

The research activity will be carried out within the PRIN 2020 project titled “The acquisition of Chinese resultative verbal complexes by L1 Italian learners: Combining learner corpus and experimental data” of Prof. Bianca Basciano. The researcher’s duties will include: 1) a review of the literature on Chinese resultative compounds, including both theoretical and acquisitional aspects; 2) a critical review of teaching materials in use in Italy; 3) the design of tasks to elicit target forms.

Who can apply

Candidates are expected to hold at least a master's degree and to have a CV suitable for the requested research activities. They must be proficient in English and Chinese language. They also must be proficient in Italian language, at a native level. They must have produced scientific publications and participated in conferences relating to the topic of the research fellowship.

The interview will focus on the following criteria:

- Experience in the acquisition of Chinese L2/LS, in the use of corpora and in the use of corpora analysis programs, as well as in the development of language tests;
- Assessment of knowledge of English and Chinese language;
- Discussion about the state of art regarding the acquisition of Chinese resultative compounds by Italian L1 learners and proposal for the project development.

Ca' Foscari encourages applications from researchers who have received positive evaluation in all the criteria applicable to funding programs, such as Marie Skłodowska Curie Actions - Individual Fellowships/ERC Starting Grants/FIRB (Italian Fund for basic research investments)/SIR (Scientific Young Independence Research) or similar. Researchers having successfully completed Marie Skłodowska Curie Actions - Individual Fellowships/ERC Starting Grants/FIRB (Italian Fund for basic research investments)/SIR (Scientific Young Independence Research) or similar funded projects are warmly encouraged to apply.
