Description

The Department of Management at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia invites application for one 15-month fellowship in Comparative statics under limited attention, under the supervision of prof. Marco Li Calzi (SSD SECS-S/06 - Mathematical methods of economics, finance and actuarial sciences).

Project acronym: PRIN 2022 “Nudging under Limited Attention“ n. 2022Z3CR7 – CUP H53D23002130006.

A full copy of the approved project will be provided to the selected applicant.

Abstract: This project is part of a larger effort to develop a methodology for the evaluation of nudges, geared to agents who make rational choices but are constrained by limited attention. Specifically, the main objective is to derive sufficient conditions under which a frame is revealed to induce more attentiveness.

The research may be carried out in Italian and English.

The fellowship is intended to provide the successful candidate with the opportunity to pursue his/her own research while benefiting from the range of expertise at Università Ca' Foscari Venezia.

Who can apply

Prospective candidates are expected to hold a master's degree in Economics, Mathematics, Statistics, Management, Computer Science, Cognitive Science, Physics or equivalent degrees and scientific-professional curriculum suitable to the development of research activities related to the fellowship.

Ca' Foscari encourages applications from researchers with positive evaluation in all the criteria in individual proposals such as Marie Skłodowska Curie Actions - Individual Fellowships/ERC Starting Grants/FIRB (Italian Fund for basic research investments)/SIR (Scientific Young Independence Research) or similar.

Researchers having successfully completed Marie Skłodowska Curie Actions - Individual Fellowships/ERC Starting Grants/FIRB (Italian Fund for basic research investments)/SIR (Scientific Young Independence Research) or similar funded projects are warmly encouraged to apply.
