Abstract:

The research explores the forms of social innovation that are developing in local policies and social business, through the study of territorial experiences in which the Public Administration adopts new policies and/or new collaborative processes to promote the creation of innovative forms of promotion and support for the well-being of individuals and families. Collaboration with "Governance & Social Innovation" Center will facilitate the identification of case studies and the acquisition of useful documentation for the study. The research will also be connected to the activities already underway in Ca' Foscari Yunus Center. The fellow will be involved in the activities of Social Innovation Unit, that studies how Social Business and Social Innovation are addressed from the point of view of the governance of these processes. The research aims to explore business and organizational models of management in social impact companies, with particular reference to the Veneto Region. The activities to be carried out may concern desk analysis of literature, development of case studies, focus groups, preparation of reports/reports reports

Deadline for submission of applications: by and no later than 2024-11-14, h. 12:00 noon – local time.
