establishes the following:

Art. 1 - Scope

1. A public selection is announced to award no. 2 research fellowships lasting 12 months, with the possibility of renewal within the limits of art. 2 of the Regulations on university Research Fellowship Awarding, which will be subject to a specific contract.

The expected starting date is approximately 01/05/2025

The research fellowships amount to Euro 31.600,00 each per year gross to the recipient, net of the expenses to be sustained by the employer. The amount may be subject to adjustment in the event of variations in the law.

2. The research fellowships are awarded for the purpose of collaboration with the following research programme of the Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage:

Position 1

Title: The impact of climate change on music scenes in Kingston, Jamaica

Scientific disciplinary sectors and/or disciplines specifically identified by the call: PEMM-01/D (Ethnomusicology), SDEA-01/A (Anthropology)

Cod. GSD (vd. DM 639/2024): 10/PEMM-01, 11/SDEA-01

Scientific coordinator and tutor: Prof. Ofer Gazit

Duration: 12 months

Abstract: The position is open to a research fellow with training in qualitative ethnographic methodologies, a background in ethnomusicology or social/cultural anthropology, and deep knowledge of Caribbean music, race, and colonial histories. The fellow must have an excellent record of academic publication in English. Working knowledge of Spanish is an advantage. The fellow will be responsible for the research in the Jamaican national context. The desired profile includes a deep knowledge of the social and cultural context in which the research takes place, preferably developed in Jamaica or in the Anglo-Caribbean context (broadly defined). The fellow will conduct fieldwork and write about Jamaican music scenes, focusing on the relationship between live music and the tourism/disaster nexus, including its impact on infrastructure, public and private spaces, and economic mobility. The fellow will also engage in online and onsite ethnography to identify venues with long-standing online video documentation and analyze the perspectives of musicians, venue owners, booking agents, promoters, and video creators on the changing conditions for live music making in Jamaica. The fellow will be responsible for producing no. 1 scientific article, submitted for the peer review for a scientific journal related to the topics of the research project. In addition to their research and publications, the researcher will foster working collaborations with relevant colleagues and stakeholders in Jamaica. They will coordinate with other team members to organize a launch event, presenting their research in Jamaica and two international conferences, one in the US and the other in Italy.

Position 2

Title: The impact of climate change on music scenes in Havana, Cuba

Scientific disciplinary sectors and/or disciplines specifically identified by the call: PEMM-01/D (Ethnomusicology), SDEA-01/A (Anthropology)

Cod. GSD (vd. DM 639/2024): 10/PEMM-01, 11/SDEA-01

Scientific coordinator and tutor: Prof. Ofer Gazit

Duration: 12 months

Abstract: The position is open to a research fellow with training in qualitative ethnographic methodologies, a background in ethnomusicology or social/cultural anthropology, and deep knowledge of Caribbean music, race, and colonial histories. The fellow must be fluent in Spanish and English, and have an excellent record of academic publication in English. The fellow will be responsible for the research in the Cuban national context. The desired profile includes knowledge of the Spanish language and a deep knowledge of the social and cultural context in which the research takes place, preferably developed in Cuba or in the Spanish-Caribbean context (broadly defined). The researcher will conduct fieldwork and write about Cuban music scenes, with a particular focus on the relationship between live music and the tourism/disaster nexus, including its impact on infrastructure, public and private spaces, and economic mobility. The researcher will also engage in online and onsite ethnography to identify venues with extensive online video documentation and analyze the perspectives of musicians, venue owners, booking agents, promoters, and video creators on the evolving conditions for live music in Havana. The fellow will be responsible for producing no. 1 scientific article, submitted for the peer review for a scientific journal related to the topics of the research project. In addition to their research and publications, the researcher will foster collaborations with relevant colleagues and stakeholders in Cuba. They will coordinate with other team members to organize a launch event in Havana to present their research, and two international conferences, one in the US and the other in Italy.

3. The selection aims to ascertain the scientific-professional requirements deemed necessary to carry out the above research activities.

Art. 2 – Requirements for participation in the selection procedure

1. Citizens belonging to European Union member states and non-community citizens in possession of the following qualifications may take part in the selection:
 - PhD in Ethnomusicology or in Anthropology (or their related disciplines) and appropriate scientific-professional curriculum.
2. Qualifications obtained abroad will be examined by the Committee, in accordance with article 4, which may consider them as being equivalent for the purposes of admission, without prejudice to the current legislation.
3. Candidates must be in possession of the requirements at the deadline established by this selection procedure announcement (see art. 3).
4. The following are not eligible for fellowships and are therefore automatically excluded from participation in the selection procedure: candidates who have a degree of kinship or affinity, up to and including the fourth degree, with a professor belonging to the department or to the facility issuing the call for applications, or with the Rector, the Director-General or a member of the University Board of Directors.

5. The following are not eligible for fellowships: permanent employees of the universities, public research institutions and administrations, the National Council for New Technology, Energy and the Environment (ENEA) and the Italian Space Agency (ASI), institutions whose scientific specialisation diploma has been recognised equivalent to the title of PhD in accordance with article 74, fourth paragraph, of the Presidential Decree of July 11th 1980, no. 382, in accordance with the relative budget availability.
6. Private employees cannot be grant holders, even if employed on part-time basis.
7. Candidates are admitted to the selection conditionally; the University will exclude, by motivated provision, candidates who are lacking the prescribed requirements. Said provision is notified to the concerned party by registered letter with recorded delivery or by telegram on the request of the concerned party.
8. In any case the fellowship will be awarded having regard to article 18 of the Regulation on the research fellowship.

Art. 3 – Application for participation in the selection and deadline

1. Candidates must submit an application with all the required documents in accordance with the Regulations on Research Fellowship Awarding and the following paragraphs.
2. Applications, together with all the required documentation, have to be submitted exclusively online at the following webpage:

<https://apps.unive.it/domandeconcorso-en/accesso/dfbc-2ar-erc-gazit>

not later than the 10th of March 2025 at noon (12:00 Rome CET), according to the publication of the call for applications on the University webpage “Albo online” (online register of the University call for proposals and tenders). In case the deadline is on Saturdays, Sundays or on holidays it is extended to the first working day thereafter.

Foreign citizens not yet in possession of the Italian Tax Code can use the following link <https://apps.unive.it/utills/cf> to obtain a temporary one and be able to proceed with the request.

The call for proposals is published on the University webpages (link), on the website of the Ministry of Higher Education and Research (link) as well as on the European Union web page (link).

Please note that the University will be closed from the 24th of December 2024 to the 6th of January 2025 included.

3. The application form together with compulsory declarations are available on the University website (link).
4. The candidate, after the uploading, will receive a submission number and an e-mail acknowledging receipt of their application. The candidate, if necessary, could access the procedures for updating any data and materials through the link and submission number provided in the e-mail until the call deadline expires, on the 10th of March 2025 at noon (12:00 Rome CET).
5. Please note that the University can be contacted for any support needs by the candidate until 24 hours prior to the deadline. For further information please contact the Research Office of the Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage, email: calls.fbc@unive.it
6. Please note that in case of a high number of applications and / or weight of the materials uploaded by the candidates the system might become slower. Therefore, it is suggested not to start the process close to the deadline.

7. Incomplete applications, those without the required data and the compulsory attachments will not be taken into consideration. Furthermore, the applications which, for any reason, reach this University beyond the term specified in paragraph 2 cannot be accepted.
8. With the exception of the provisions of art. 6, all communications concerning the public selections announced hereunder are sent to the concerned parties by certified email, registered mail with recorded delivery, or telegram.
9. In the application the candidate must declare his/her surname and first name, date and place of birth, taxpayer's code and residence, e-mail and/or certified e-mail address (if possessed) and the elected domicile for the purposes of selection. Any change in these data must be promptly communicated to calls.fbc@unive.it.

16. The same procedure established in the previous paragraphs for Italian citizens should be applied to citizens of the European Union. Citizens of countries not belonging to the European Union, regularly residing in Italy, can use the self-certifications established by the D.P.R. no. 445/2000 limited to the countries, personal qualities and facts that can be certified or attested by Italian public bodies, with the exception of the special provisions contained in the legislation and regulations concerning immigration and the status of foreigners.
17. Citizens of countries not belonging to the European Union authorised to reside in the territory of the Country can use the aforementioned self-certifications if the same are produced under international agreements between Italy and the country of origin of the declarant.
18. The University performs sample checks on the truthfulness of the declarations made by the candidates in the applications and in the curriculum.
19. If the above check reveals that the content of the declaration is not true, the Declarant will forfeit any benefits conferred on the basis of the untruthful declaration, without prejudice to the provisions of the criminal code and relevant special legislation.

Art. 4 – Selection Committee

1. A Selection Committee is appointed in accordance with art. 9 of the Regulations.
2. Prior to examination of the applications, the Committee determines the general criteria for evaluation of the scientific-professional qualifications required for participation in the selection, the interview and the evaluation criteria described in articles 2 and 5, with regard to their specific relevance to the research activity subject of this call and establishes, for each type of qualification, the score to be attributed, in accordance to the evaluation grid defined by the Regulations on Research Fellowship Awarding (see att. B).
3. The selection reports will be approved by decree of the Director of Department/Centre and made public as established by articles 10 and 11 of the Regulations on Research Fellowship Awarding.

Art. 5 – Assessment procedure

1. The selection is made by assessment of the scientific and professional qualifications, the curriculum vitae and scientific production of the candidates, followed by an interview.
2. Candidates are admitted to the interview on the basis of the assessment of their scientific-professional qualifications.
The interviews, that will be held by video and in English, aim to assess the candidates' skills and expertise on the following subjects:

Position 1: The impact of climate change on music scenes in Kingston, Jamaica

- Knowledge, competency and experience related to field work in Jamaica and, more broadly, in the Caribbean, with particular attention to the themes of tourism, climate change, urban space, in relation to music, and discussion on any future plans for research, if applicable.
- Knowledge of the English language, with particular reference to the topics of the call.

Position 2: The impact of climate change on music scenes in Havana, Cuba

- Knowledge, competency and experience related to field work in Cuba and, more broadly, in the Caribbean, with particular attention to the themes of tourism, climate change, urban space, in relation to music, and discussion on any future plans for research, if applicable.
- Knowledge of the Spanish language, with particular reference to the topics of the call.

3. Candidates whose qualifications are judged to be insufficient by the Selection Committee, in accordance with the previous art. 4, are excluded from the interview. The candidate must reach a minimum threshold of 42/60.
4. Exclusion is justified in detail in the selection reports which can be accessed in accordance with law 241/90, and as established also in the subsequent art. 8.
5. In addition to the publications, the following qualifications are considered as evaluation criteria:

Position 1: The impact of climate change on music scenes in Kingston, Jamaica

- a) specialisation diplomas and attendance certificates at post-graduate specialisation courses, obtained both in Italy or abroad, documented research activity in public and private organisations with contracts, study grants or assignments both in Italy and abroad;
- b) Research and study experience, documented, in English-speaking countries;
- c) Proven knowledge of the Spanish language.

Position 2: The impact of climate change on music scenes in Havana, Cuba

- a) specialisation diplomas and attendance certificates at post-graduate specialisation courses, obtained both in Italy or abroad, documented research activity in public and private organisations with contracts, study grants or assignments both in Italy and abroad;
- b) Research and study experience, documented, in Spanish-speaking countries;

Art. 6 – Selection and ranking

1. The classification and consequent identification of the successful candidate will be made by The Selection Committee, which can award a total of 100 points, as established by the Regulations on Research Fellowship Awarding (see Annex B), to be allocated as follows:
 - Qualifications (including publications), up to 60 points;
 - Interview, up to 40 points.
2. Candidates are admitted to the interview if assessment of the qualifications results in a score equal to or greater than 42/60.
3. The interview will be held online (via Google Meet) in any case on March 28th 2025 at 4:00 p.m. (Italian time – Rome CET). The list of candidates admitted to the interview, or any delay, will be published on the 21st of March 2025 on the University website (link) and on the other web pages as established by the current regulations.
4. Publication of the above calendar and of the shortlisted candidates constitutes notification to all intents and purposes of the call for applications. Shortlisted candidates are therefore required to connect, with the identification document presented at the time of submission, on the day and at the time specified in the public notice.
5. Absence of the candidates at the interview will be considered to all intents and purposes as a withdrawal from the selection, whatever the cause.
6. The interview is held publicly. Candidates are deemed to have passed the interview if they reach a minimum score of 28/40.
7. Candidates are considered suitable for the specific research activity if the sum of the points assigned to the qualifications and to the interview is equal to or greater than 70/100.
8. On the basis of the scores attributed, the Committee draws up a merit ranking list in accordance to articles 7 and 10 of the Regulations on Research Fellowship Awarding.

9. In the event of two or more candidates obtaining the same score at the end of the selection, the younger candidate will be preferred.

Art. 7 – Awarding of the research fellowship

1. Having received the selection documents, the Director approves, by his own decree, the ranking lists, differentiated by position, and the selection procedure reports and makes them public according to the procedures specified in the following art. 8. The approval decree ascertains the overall regularity of the procedure and compliance with current legislation and the University regulations.
2. If any irregularity is found, the Director of the structure requests clarifications from the Selection Committee. In the absence of a response within 20 days of the request or in the event of a negative evaluation of the elements provided in the response, the Director of the structure repeals the procedure.
3. The deadline for any appeal against the procedure is set by the date of the publication of the ranking lists.
4. The rankings are valid for a period of one year.
5. The Department that issued the call can use the rankings, without prejudice to ensure adequate financial coverage, in the following cases:
 - a) impossibility to sign the contract with the winner;
 - b) withdrawal of the winner before the contract is signed;
 - c) withdrawal of the winner after the contract is signed;
 - d) in case the need to activate additional positions on the same specific project arises.
6. In case the contract cannot be signed, the amount set aside for the present call for applications will be made available to the Department.
7. The Director of the Department where the research programme will be conducted, awards the research fellowship to the winner of the selection procedure, subject to ascertainment of the prescribed requirements.
8. The latter must accept the award within 7 days from receipt of the communication by signing the relative contract at the competent office of the Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage. The contract will establish the terms of and procedures for the collaboration and allocation of the grant, within the terms set in article 1.
9. The research fellowship can be renewed, subject to the necessary financial backing, in the manner and under the terms established by articles 2, 14 and 16 of the Regulations on research fellowship awarding and by art. 12 of the present call.

Art. 8 – Publication of the selection procedure

1. Publication of the results of all the selection phases is ensured by affixing a notice at the premises of the concerned department, in the provided spaces, with indication of the scores assigned to the qualifications and to the interview and the final classification. The selection documents are made public also on the university website and on the other web pages as established by the current regulations.
2. Access to the selection documents is guaranteed pursuant to the law of August 7th 1990, no. 241 and subsequent amendments and additions and relative internal implementation regulations.

Art. 9 – Activity of the research fellow

1. During the whole research period, the activity of the research fellow is conducted at the Department/Centre awarding the fellowship, except for external missions envisaged by the research project and/or those the tutor or the Department/Centre Director have authorised in advance, as established in art. 13 of the Regulations on Research Fellowship Awarding.

2. The activity of the research fellow is conducted independently and without set working times, solely within the limits of the research programme and the indications provided by the research coordinator, who will act as tutor without prejudice to art. 13 of the Regulations on Research Fellowship Awarding.
3. The activity of the research fellow in no way constitutes a subordinate working relationship and does not give rise to rights in respect of access to permanent employment at the University.
4. Research fellows must register with the INPS separate management scheme. Also, he/she has to register on the portal of the Ministry of Education <https://loginmiur.cineca.it/>, to implement the U-GOV catalogue containing the scientific publications produced by the research fellow, to comply with the University Regulations, specifically this notice, University Regulations on research Knowledge Valorisation and the attached University policy – Guidelines on IP and confidentiality in research agreements, the University Codes of Ethics and of Conduct, the Regulations containing the code of conduct for public employees, pursuant to Article 54 of Legislative Decree no 165.

Art. 10 – Intellectual property, patentability and confidentiality

The legal and economic aspects relative to protection and exploitation of all the results of the research will be established by the contract stipulated with the winning candidate/s. Specifically, without prejudice to authors' moral rights, the University is entitled to the Industrial Property Rights on the research results and the Copyright on the Particular Intellectual Works developed by the research fellow. In this sense, the University Regulations on research knowledge valorisation (in particular art. 4) and the definitions provided therein apply.

Art. 11 - Incompatibility – Ban on accumulation – Suspension of activity

1. Research fellows can hold teaching contracts within the University and can be part of the examining committees as experts in their subject, having regard to art. 4 of the Regulations on research fellowship awarding.
2. The research fellowship may not be accumulated with study grants awarded for any reason, except for those awarded by national or foreign institutions for stays abroad in order to integrate the research activity of the research fellow.
3. The research fellowship is not compatible with participation in degree or master degree courses, specialist degree, PhD with grant or medical specialisation, in Italy or abroad, and entails extended unpaid leave for public administration employees, even if part-time employed, without prejudice to the provisions contained in the laws concerning the appointment of paid assignments to full-time civil servants.
4. Research fellows may undertake self-employed work or occasional or continuous collaborative work, compatibly with the research activity and subject to the authorization of the department, provided that the work:
 - does not involve a conflict of interest with the specific research carried out by the research fellow;
 - does not harm the University
5. The research and the fellowship can be suspended, subject to approval by the department after hearing the tutor, without prejudice to the provisions of Art. 13, for the following reasons: compulsory military service, compulsory maternity leave paternity, adoption and foster care leave and parental leave, serious illness or serious family circumstances, awarding of scholarships granted by national or foreign institutions permitted by current legislation and not directly linked to the research programme funded by the fellowship, for a maximum of one year, it being understood that the total duration of the fellowship shall not be reduced due to such suspensions. An overall period of justified absence of less than thirty days in a year does not constitute suspension and, consequently, does not have to be made up for.

6. An overall period of justified absence of less than thirty days in one year does not constitute suspension and consequently does not have to be made up.
7. Research fellows can participate in university research groups and projects, whatever the funding body.
8. In any case the fellowship will be awarded having regard to article 18 of the Regulation on the research fellowship.

Art. 12 – Method of control and assessment of research fellow activity

1. Without prejudice to the provisions of par. 2 of this article, the research fellow is required to report on his/her research activity whenever requested to do so by the tutor. For said purpose the research fellow may be required to keep a diary-register in which he/she periodically notes the state of progress of the research programme, except for art. 13 provisions within the Regulations.
2. The research fellow is required to present to the Department, at the end of the tenure period and in any case at the end of each year, in the case of a grant lasting several years, a written report on the research activity conducted also for the purpose of adjustment of the amount of the research fellowship grant where scheduled by the contract according to the preceding art. 7. In the report, the research fellow shall accurately and thoroughly detail the research methods applied and achievement of the results, even though they might be partial results, with reference to the specific programme in which he/she collaborates with, also for the purpose of renewal of the grant if necessary, except for art. 13 provisions within the Regulations.
3. At the end of their research activity, each research fellow is required to provide the Department with:
 - No. 1 scientific article, submitted for the peer review for a scientific journal related to the topics of the research project
4. The report, together with the opinion of the tutor on the appropriateness of the research methods applied and the validity of the results achieved, is submitted for examination to the Council of the Department or the body responsible.
5. In the event of a negative assessment, the Council of the Department or the body responsible, having consulted the research fellow, can propose revocation of the grant. Early termination of the collaboration in the research activity is decided by the Council of the Department or the body responsible.
6. At the end of the grant, the above report shall describe accurately and thoroughly the research methods applied and achievement of the goals set by the research programme, also for the purpose of renewal of the grant if necessary.
7. Collaboration in the research activity may be terminated early in cases of serious and documented non-fulfilment of the requirements by the research fellow as notified by the tutor or by the Council of the Department or body responsible.
