The Department of Environmental Sciences, Informatics and Statistics of Ca' Foscari University of Venice, having regard to the resolution of the Decision for Department n. 790/2021, date 25/06/2021, establishing the research programmes for awarding of the short fellowships in “Families-to-Families for sharing children care”, lasting 4 months,

1. “Families-to-Families for sharing children care: case study in Venice”, lasting 4 months, Tutor Prof. Agostino Cortesi.
2. “Families-to-Families for sharing children care: case study in Bologna”, lasting 4 months, Tutor Prof. Agostino Cortesi.

The project aims to investigate the usability and acceptability of the socio-technical solution developed in the European project Families_Share for a participatory approach to the production of community services in response to post-lockdown restrictions. In this context, each fellow is asked to produce, referring to the initiatives carried out in Venice, respectively:

An analysis of administrative regulatory issues related to the involvement of groups of parents as volunteers for support activities for the accompaniment of children in a possibly sustainable way (e.g. staggered piedibus).

An analysis of the impact of a social innovation tool based on the creation of "circles of trust" and on the support of an app to facilitate organizational aspects;

An analysis of portability on different types of companies of a welfare model that involves employees who are also parents of children in the 3-11 range in the co-design, planning and implementation of childcare activities within the company structure;

An analysis of security issues (security, privacy, DoS) in the large-scale adoption of social innovation apps.

3. “Families-to-Families for sharing children care: casa study in Bologna”, lasting 4 months, Tutor Prof. Agostino Cortesi.
