The Temporary Centre “Project Ecosistema dell’Innovazione” of Ca' Foscari University of Venice, having regard to the Decision of the Vice Coordinator of the Temporary Centre “Project Ecosistema dell’Innovazione” Repertorio n. 219/2025 Prot. n. 204085 del 30/07/2025 establishing the research programmes for awarding of the short-term research fellowships in “Participatory Culture and Social Innovation for Urban Regeneration in Belluno” lasting 10 months. The expected starting date is indicatively from September 2025.

The short-term research fellowship is awarded for the purpose of collaboration with the following research programme of the Temporary Centre “Ecosistema dell’Innovazione”- abstract:

This research grant is part of the project “La Belluno che vorrei,” promoted by Ca' Foscari University of Venice, which aims to activate processes of urban regeneration, social innovation, and participatory cultural production in the city of Belluno. The research grant includes fieldwork, data collection and analysis, participatory facilitation, operational support, and the production of both scientific and public dissemination materials, with a focus on assessing social impact and ensuring the long-term sustainability of the actions. The project is structured around five key actions:

Participatory Mapping “Urban Tales”: the fellow will assist in designing and implementing interviews and workshops with citizens (especially youth and vulnerable groups), collecting data, and developing emotional maps of the urban territory.

Participatory Cinema “Filming Belluno”: they will contribute to training participants in basic videomaking and storytelling techniques, coordinating audiovisual production workshops, and organising public screenings and debates.

Participatory Artistic Residencies: the fellow will support co-design activities between artists and citizens, help organise intergenerational creative labs, and document artworks created on-site, contributing also to the development of permanent urban art routes.

Workshop “Imagining Belluno”: they will assist in facilitating visioning labs with various social actors, experimenting with generative AI tools, and curating the content of the immersive exhibition showcasing the results.

Urban Observatory and Legacy: the fellow will collaborate in establishing a local observatory collecting qualitative data over time, in producing a public-facing publication, and in drafting a methodological toolkit to ensure replicability and sustainability.

Tutor: Prof. Fabrizio Panozzo

The amount of the short-term research fellowship is equal to Euro 16.130,00 gross percipient and will be subject to taxation according to current regulations. It will be paid in bimonthly instalments after certification of the regular performance of the activity.

Deadline: Tuesday, August 19th, 2025, 12:00 pm.

In case the deadline is on Saturdays, Sundays or on holidays it is extended to the first working day thereafter.

Rules of eligibility – Beneficiaries

Citizens belonging to European Union member states and non-community citizens in possession of the following qualifications may take part in the selection:

- a) People with a degree (old or new system) in LM-65 Music and Performing Arts or an academic diploma (old or new system) and an adequate scientific and professional CV are eligible.

Applicants must hold all the requisites within the call deadline. The qualifications will be evaluated by a Commission that examines the eligibility and qualifications of the candidates and makes a merit rank of them.

Skills required

Experience in artistic direction and curation of cultural projects, with the ability to engage local actors and manage participatory processes. Aptitude for social and creative work, with a focus on inclusion and concrete impact. Experience in organizing events, workshops, or artist residencies, including in non-formal contexts, is preferred.

Any other evaluable qualifications

Specialization diplomas or certificates of participation in training activities consistent with the research topics (e.g., summer schools, visiting periods abroad, research awards, etc.).

Incompatibility

The short-term research fellowship may not overlap with:

- a) other scholarships granted in any capacity, apart from those granted by national or foreign research institutes in order to integrate with periods abroad the specific activity foreseen by the work plan of the appointed fellow;
- b) attendance of PhD courses with scholarship and medical specialization, in Italy and abroad;
- c) research grants “assegni di ricerca”

Short-term Research Fellowship holders may carry out self-employed work or occasional or permanent collaborations, as long as this is coherent with the ongoing research, upon approval and on the condition that:

- does not involve a conflict of interest with the specific research activity carried out;
- does not prejudice the university, in relation to the activities carried out.

Subordinate employment contracts holders, in addition to obtaining permission by the university, must provide the authorization of their employer.

In the specific case that the subordinate employment contract started prior to the awarding of the fellowship, compatibility with the existing employment will have to be assessed; if the assessment yields a negative result, the Short-term Research Fellowship will not be awarded; in the case of a positive result, the successful candidate will have to provide the authorization of his/her employer within 15 days. In the event that the subordinate employment contract will start once the fellowship is ongoing, the successful applicant is required to notify this change at least 30 days before the start of the employment contract for an assessment of compatibility; if the assessment is negative, the fellowship will cease by the start of the employment contract; in the event of a positive outcome, the successful applicant must provide the authorization of his/her employer within 15 days.

The awarding of the short-term research fellowship does not imply the establishment of any employment contract, nor does it give rise to any rights of access to positions of employment at the university

Selection and Evaluation Procedure

The selection is made by assessment of the scientific-professional qualifications, by a Selection Committee appointed by order of the Vice Coordinator of Temporary Centre "Project Ecosistema dell'Innovazione" taking into account, whereas possible, gender balance.

The Commission compiles a ranking and specifies the winning applicant, having regard to the score appointed to experience and qualifications, as specified by the call. In the event of two or more candidates obtaining the same score at the end of the selection, the younger candidate will be preferred.

Awarding of the short research fellowship

Having received the selection documents, and at the outcome of the checks, the Vice Coordinator of Temporary Centre "Project Ecosistema dell'Innovazione" approves, by his own decree, the classification and the selection procedure reports and makes them public.

Notification, including the start date of the short-term research fellowship, shall be sent to the winning candidate.

The winner must accept the short-term research fellowship within seven days of receipt of the written notification referred to above, under penalty of revocation. In the event of withdrawal, the short-term research fellowship shall be awarded to the next available candidate, following the order of the final ranking of merit.

Publication of the results of all the selection phases shall be published in the online University notice board and on the University website (<https://www.unive.it/data/28824/>).

Access to the selection documents is guaranteed pursuant to the law of August 7th 1990, no. 241 and subsequent amendments and additions and relative internal implementation regulation.

Processing of personal data

Personal data provided by the candidates in their applications for participation in the selection procedures, are processed pursuant to the legislative decree of June 30th 2003, no. 196 and subsequent amendments and additions to EU Regulations 2016/679. Comprehensive information on personal data processing can be found here.

Person in charge of the procedure

Pursuant to the provisions of art. 5 of the law of August 7th 1990, no. 241 and subsequent amendments and additions, the person in charge of the administrative procedure for this selection is Dr Dario Pellizzon, Administrative Director of the Temporary Centre "Project Ecosistema dell'Innovazione".

Final provisions

For anything not specified in this call, see the University current regulations regarding the awarding for research fellowships and the current legislation.
