The research fellowships is awarded for the purpose of collaboration with the following research programme of the Department of Humanities.

- abstract:

The research "Banglasclapes" studies the social and professional integration of the Bangladeshi community in the Metropolitan City of Venice, exploring the everyday experiences of individuals of Bangladeshi origin in the area through an ethnographic methodology. The "Work and Rights" section (12 months) is aimed at understanding the dynamics of labor integration, with particular attention to shipbuilding, foodservice, and delivery. The research investigates the forms of employment, the role of mediators and networks of facilitation/control, the relationships with the Unions, as well as possibilities and hindrances in the access to rights.

The amount of the short-term research fellowship is equal to € 17.585,25 gross percipient and will be subject to taxation according to current regulations. It will be paid in bimonthly instalments after certification of the regular performance of the activity.

Deadline: 4th September 2025, h 12. p.m.

Rules of eligibility – Beneficiaries

Citizens belonging to European Union member states and non-community citizens in possession of the following qualifications may take part in the selection:

- Master's degree in Social and cultural anthropology or Sociology (preferential) or Master's degree in social science-related disciplines;
- Suitable scientific and professional curriculum.

Applicants must hold all the requisites within the call deadline. The qualifications will be evaluated by a Commission that examines the eligibility and qualifications of the candidates and makes a merit rank of them.

Evaluable titles

Incompatibility

The short-term research fellowship may not overlap with:

- other short-term research fellowships granted in any capacity, apart from those granted by national or foreign research institutes in order to integrate with periods abroad the specific activity foreseen by the work plan of the appointed fellow;
- attendance of PhD courses with short-term research fellowship and medical specialization, in Italy and abroad;
- research grants “assegni di ricerca”

Short-term Research Fellowship holders may carry out self-employed work or occasional or permanent collaborations, as long as this is coherent with the ongoing research, upon approval and on the condition that:

- does not involve a conflict of interest with the specific research activity carried out;
- does not prejudice the university, in relation to the activities carried out.

Subordinate employment contracts holders, in addition to obtaining permission by the university, must provide the authorization of their employer.

In the specific case that the subordinate employment contract started prior to the awarding of the fellowship, compatibility with the existing employment will have to be assessed; if the assessment yields a negative result, the Short-term Research Fellowship will not be awarded; in the case of a positive result, the successful candidate will have to provide the authorization of his/her employer within 15 days.

In the event that the subordinate employment contract will start once the fellowship is ongoing, the successful applicant is required to notify this change at least 30 days before the start of the employment contract for an assessment of compatibility; if the assessment is negative, the fellowship will cease by the start of the employment contract; in the event of a positive outcome, the successful applicant must provide the authorization of his/her employer within 15 days.

The awarding of the short-term research fellowship does not imply the establishment of any employment contract, nor does it give rise to any rights of access to positions of employment at the university
