Requirements for admission to selection procedure

The Selection Procedure is open to both Italian and foreign applicants with a PhD or equivalent degree awarded either in Italy or abroad.

Applicants must be in possession of the requirements laid down at the closing date for the submission of application to the selection. The Committee, as defined in the next art. 6, evaluates the qualifications required for admission.

Exclusion from the selection procedure shall take place by means of a motivated order issued by the Rector and communicated to the candidates concerned.

The following are excluded: anyone with a contract for research fellowship or fixed-term research contract as provided in Arts. 22 and 24 of Italian Law 240/10 at Ca' Foscari or at other Italian Universities, whether public, private or online, or bodies under Par. 1 of Art. 22 of Italian law 240/10 for a period, in addition to the intended duration of the competition contract, exceeding a total of 12 years, even if not continuing. Maternity or sick leave as provided in the laws in force shall not be included in the duration of the aforementioned employment contracts. Also excluded from the selection procedures are those who have already been employed on permanent positions as full and associate professors or as researchers, even if no longer in service.

Also belonging to the exclusion categories are those with a family relationship or affinity, up to the fourth degree, with professors belonging to the recruiting Department including the Rector, Administrative Manager, any member of the Board of Governors as provided in Art. 18, Par. 1, Letter b) and c), of Italian Law 240/2010.

The following shall not participate in the selection procedures:

- 1) Those who are not entitled to exercise civil and political rights;
- 2) Those who have been dismissed or relieved from office with a Public Administration for consistently poor performance;
- 3) Those who have been dismissed from a civil service job as provided in Art. 127, Letter d) of D.P.R. 10/1/1957, No. 3.

This Administration guarantees fairness and equal opportunity to men and women in access in to employment and employment conditions.

Art. 3

Application submission procedure

To participate in the selection, candidates must submit their application only using the procedure available on the web at:

<http://static.unive.it/domandeconcorso-en/accesso/rtda-lfillet02> within a deadline of 13.00 p.m. CET on the thirty day following the date of publication of the call in the Official Gazette of the Italian Republic.

The application may be filled via web using any computer with Internet connection within the deadline.

Note: the candidate must fill out the application by completing all the required fields and by attaching all the files required. Only in this moment the procedure shall generate an individual alphanumeric code, which will be forwarded to the email address written in the application. Until the deadline indicated above, it is allowed to make changes to the application and replace the files attached, exclusively by returning in the proceedings with the alphanumeric code access.

Then, the link will be blocked and will no longer be possible to fill and modify the application. No other forms of submission are allowed under penalty of exclusion.

Other forms of production or submission of the application for participation in the competition are not allowed.

For further information, candidates may contact Settore Concorsi phone: +39 0412348269- +39 0412348217- +39 0412348135, email: pdoc.concorsi@unive.it

We inform you that in the period from 10th to 15th August 2020 all the University premises will be closed.

The application form shall clearly state the candidate's name and surname, date and place of birth and tax identification number. All candidates must, likewise, declare on their own account:

- 1- Their citizenship;
- 2- That they are in possession of a PhD awarded in Italy or abroad;
- 3- That they do not have, nor have they had in the past, a contract for research fellowship or fixed-term research contract as provided in Arts. 22 and 24 of Italian Law 240/10 at Ca' Foscari or at other Italian Universities, whether public, private or online, or bodies under Par. 1 of Art. 22 of Italian Law 240/10 for a period, in addition to the intended duration of the competition contract, exceeding a total of 12 years, even if not continuing;
- 4- That they have not already been employed on permanent positions as full and associate professors or as researchers, even if no longer in service;
- 5- That they have not a family relationship or affinity, up to the fourth degree, with professors belonging to the recruiting Department including the Rector, General Director or any member of the Board of Governors;
- 6- That they have not been convicted of a crime nor are they aware of being subject to criminal proceedings or of any pending criminal proceedings against them;
- 7- That they are/are not employees in a Public Administration;
- 8- That they have not been dismissed from office with a Public Administration for consistently poor performance nor from a civil service job as provided in Art. 127, Letter d) of President Decree 3, 10.01.1957;

- 9- That they are aware that all communications to candidates shall be made by posting on the website of the University and that such publication has the value of notification in all respects.

The failure to make the declarations in the above paragraphs will cause elimination from participation in the selection procedure.

Italian candidates shall also state on their own account:

- In which electoral roll they are registered (municipality) and any reasons for non-registration or deletion from it;
- Their current situation with regard to military service.

Foreign candidates shall also state on their own account :

- That they exercise civil and political rights in their country or give the reasons for failure to do so;
- That they have adequate Italian language skills.

Candidates with disabilities shall specify which support (if any) they require with regard to their handicap to attend the interview.

In their applications candidates should also include the address for their notification, a telephone number, a mobile number and an e-mail address.

The University Administration declines all responsibility for the notifications due to the failure of the candidate to provide a correct address or a failure or delay in notifying about a change to the address given in the application or for any postal or telegraphic services misdeliveries, or due to third parties, unforeseeable events or force majeure.

Candidates must also attach the following to their applications:

- Candidate's curriculum vitae listing their scientific and teaching activities, written in Italian and in English, signed with an original signature and declaration of veracity as provided in Arts. 46 and 47 of Pres. Decree 445/2000;
- Documents confirming the qualifications deemed useful for the selection procedure (except for qualifications issued by other Public Administrations for which candidates must submit the self-executed certificate) and a list signed with original signature;
- List of published works that candidate intends to submit for the purposes of Art. 1 of these competition regulations, signed with original signature;
- Photocopy of valid identity document.

According to the University's actions within the Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HRS4R), candidates are invited to submit a cover letter to their CV.

Qualifications refer to academic qualifications, professional qualifications, specialisations, licenses, training, updates and so on.

European Union citizens may:

- Submit scanned copies of qualifications, that are certified copies of the originals with self-executed affidavit as provided in Arts 19 and 47 of Pres. Decree 445, 28 December 2000 (attachment A); if written in a foreign language, said qualifications shall include a sworn

Italian translation performed by embassy or consulate translators or by an official translator; or

- Prove that they have the necessary qualifications using the self-executed certificate or self-executed affidavit (Attachment A). The latter mode is the only accepted for qualifications issued by other Public Administrations.

Non-EU citizens with a regular residence permit may submit scanned copies of qualifications, authenticated or true certified copies of the original. The self-executed certificates must be used in accordance with the procedure laid down for EU citizens whenever it is necessary to provide proof of status, facts or personal qualities certifiable or confirmable by Italian public agencies or if the production of self-executed certificates takes place under international agreements between Italy and the applicant's country of origin.

Non-EU citizens without a regular residence permit may submit scanned copies of qualifications, authenticated or true certified copies of the original.

Certificates issued by the relevant authorities of the applicant's Country of origin must be submitted together with a translation into Italian authenticated by the Italian consular authority certifying conformity with the original.

The Administration shall carry out a verification process on the contents of substitute declarations contained in the curriculum vitae.

No reference may be made to documents presented to this or other administrations or to documents attached to the application forms of other selection procedures.

Art. 4 Publications

Candidates must upload their publications in pdf, dividing them into the appropriate four fields of electronic procedure of the capacity of 50 MB each (in each field can be inserted more publications collected into a .zip folder. It is recommended that the names of the files in the folder do not exceed 20 characters).

Published works not uploaded within the closing date shall not be taken into consideration by the Examining Board.

It is not allowed to present publications as link or in a "storage/file sharing on-line" or web pages.

If a candidate presents more publications than required, the Commission will evaluate the publications, in the order specified in the list of publications produced by the candidate, up to the limit provided.

For the purposes of this selection procedure only published works or texts accepted for publication as provided in current law shall be accepted for assessment, along with essays in anthologies and articles published in hard copy or digital format magazines excluding internal notes or departmental reports.

For joint-authored publications the candidates may include a statement confirming their contribution. Otherwise, joint-authored publications may be evaluated provided it is possible to identify the individual contribution of the candidate on the basis of its coherence with their overall scientific activity.

The Examining Board will have access to the publications in digital format only for competition purposes, taking into account the existing legislation concerning publishing and copyright.

Art. 5

Exclusion from selection procedure

Candidates are conditionally admitted to the selection procedure. The exclusion, due to lack of the requirements on the expiry date, is ordered at any time, even after the discussion has taken place. The exclusion decree is published on the University website.

Art. 6

Composition of the Examining Board

The Board, made up of at least three members chosen from tenured professors, mainly from other universities (also foreign universities), shall be proposed by means of a resolution passed by the Department Board and appointed by a Rector's Decree. The Board may draw upon the support of one or more experts for the language proficiency assessment.

The appointment of the Examining Board must be carried on in compliance with Art. 7 of Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers

The appointment of the Board shall be published online on the University website.

Art. 7

Roles of the Examining Board

For the procedure admission, the Board assesses:

a) the PhD equivalence of any qualifications obtained abroad;

Then, the Board carries out the preliminary assessment of the candidates who meet the requirements, providing motivated evaluations of qualifications, curriculum vitae and scientific work, including their doctoral thesis, according to criteria and parameters recognised at international level, identified by means of Ministerial Decree 243, 25 May 2011, to be carried out in accordance with the guidelines for the evaluation in Annex no. 1 of the Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers in compliance with Art. 24 of the Italian Law 240/2010.

Following the preliminary assessment the Board will admit the most worthy candidates - 10 to 20 per cent of the original candidates and no less than six in number - to participate in a public discussion of their qualifications and scientific work; all candidates shall be admitted to the discussion should their total number be equal to or less than six.

After the discussion the board will grade the qualifications and each of the published works presented by the candidates admitted to said discussion. The board will draw up a collective overall evaluation of the candidates admitted to the discussion of their qualifications and published works, stating whether they are eligible for the competition and expressing a concise evaluation.

The assessment of candidates involves no written or oral examinations with the exception of the interview aimed at ascertaining the adequate knowledge of the foreign language provided in art. 1 of this call; the interview takes place at the same time as the discussion of qualifications and publications.

The University will publish on 1st October 2020 on its website at the following address <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ric240> the discussion date, with details of candidates admitted, or the possible postponement of the publication.

The said publication is equivalent to notification of the law in effect. Therefore, candidates are required to appear for the discussion, without notice, in the place, the day and hour specified in the notice. Failure to attend this discussion shall be considered explicit outright proof of their decision to withdraw from the selection process.

Attending candidates must present a valid identity document.

At all stages of the procedure, the Board may make use of telematic tools for collegial work.

The Board must conclude its activities within three months of the appointment decree, unless otherwise specified. The closing date may be deferred for proven exceptional motives given by the Board Chair. In the case of failure to conclude activities by the date established, the Rector shall issue a reasoned decree giving rise to procedures for the replacement of members held to be responsible for the delay as well as establishing a new closing date for the conclusion of activities.

Art. 8 Validity of the proceedings

The Board proceedings are attested in the minutes of the meetings, together with the related attachments that shall be sent by the Board Chair to the ARU (Ca' Foscari Human Resources Area) – Ufficio Personale Docente e CEL Settore Concorsi within 7 days after the conclusion of the Board activities for assessment of the proceedings and approval of the minutes by Rector's Decree.

Once the minutes have been approved, the proceedings are sent to the recruiting Department Head and published by insertion in the University website at the following address <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ric240>. This insertion will be announced by notice in the Official Gazette (<http://www.gazzettaufficiale.it/index.jsp>)

From the date of publication of this notice starts the deadline for any appeal.

Art. 9 Selection conclusion and appointment

Within two months of the receipt of the proceedings, the Department Board proposes to the Board of Governors the choice of the candidate who is comparatively best among those declared eligible as shown by the proceedings of the Examining Board. In case of ex aequo evaluation, preference will be based on: coherence with the call requirements, international experience, continuity in research activity.

The resolution will point out, anyhow, the precise reasons for the choice.

Art. 10

Drawing-up of contract

The Administration invites the person concerned to send all documentation required under current legislation and the competition regulations within 30 days of the drawing-up of the individual fixed-term employment contract. The contract shall be drawn up by the Rector or her/his representative on behalf of the University.

The employment is governed by the individual contract and by the regulations in force also regarding to the tax, welfare, social treatment for employee income.

The gross annual pay for fixed-term full-time researcher amounts to Euro 35.733,00 in compliance with art 3, par. 6, DPR n. 232/2011. The economic treatment is subject to any adjustments provided for by national legislation.

The contract will specify the causes of termination; in any case is a cause of termination of the contract the annulment of the selection procedure, which is its prerequisite.

The employment start date shall be established by the recruiting Department on the basis of research and teaching requirements, and depending on funding available and any legal constraints.

Should circumstances arise hindering recruitment - whether for legal, organisational or financial motives, prior to the completion of the selection procedures, this Administration reserves the right not to hire or to delay recruitment.

In the six months prior to the expiration of the research, the researcher is subject to evaluation of teaching and research activities carried out under the contract, even for a possible two-year extension of the contract. The assessment is made on the basis of the procedures, criteria and parameters established by art. 9 of the University Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers in compliance with Art. 24 of the Italian Law 240/10.

The Administration reserves the right, without prejudice to the legal and financial, to proceed with the extension of the contract as required by law.

Art. 11

Incompatibilities

The incompatibilities provided for the employees of public Administration and in particular those resulting from the provisions of Article 53 of Legislative Decree no. 165/2001 are applied to the employment contract established in accordance with this call.

Art. 12

Information about the processing of personal data

The processing of personal data provided by candidates, or otherwise acquired by the University, is aimed only at the completion of the selection procedure and will be carried out in compliance with the applicable national and Community legislation (Legislative Decree 196/2003 and EU Regulation 2016/679). The provision of data is necessary to evaluate candidates' requirements and qualifications.
