The term "Qualifications" refers to academic and professional qualifications, specialisations, licences, training, updates and similar titles.

European Union citizens may:

- Submit scanned certified copies of their qualifications, as provided in Art. 19 and 47 of Pres. Decree 445, 28 December 2000 (attachment A). Candidates are invited to provide a legally recognised translation of the documents in Italian by an embassy or an official translator or

- Declare that they meet the requirements filling and signing a self-executed certificate (Attachment A). The certificate is compulsory if the qualifications are issued by other Italian Public Administrations.

Non-EU citizens with a regular residence permit may submit certified copies of their qualifications. Self-executed certificates must be used in accordance with the procedure for EU citizens whenever it is necessary to provide proof of status, facts or personal qualities certifiable or confirmable by Italian public agencies or if the production of self-executed certificates takes place under international agreements between Italy and the country of origin of the candidate.

Non-EU citizens without a regular residence permit may submit scanned copies of qualifications, authenticated or declared conform to the original.

Certificates that are not issued by relevant authorities of the applicant's Country of origin must be submitted with a translation authenticated by the Italian consular authority as a certificate of conformity with the original.

The Administration will verify the contents of all the documents submitted.

No reference may be attached to documents presented to this or other administrations in the application forms of other selection procedures.

Art. 4 Publications

Candidates must upload their publications as pdf files, in slots of the electronic procedure for a maximum capacity of 50 MB each (it is possible to upload .zip folders with more publications). It is recommended that the names of the files in the folder do not exceed 20 characters).

Published works not uploaded within the closing date shall not be considered by the Examining Board.

Links to publications or works saved in online storage clouds or webpages will not be considered as valid for the evaluation.

If a candidate presents more publications than required, the Commission will evaluate them in the order specified in the list of publications produced by the candidate, up to the limit provided. For the purposes of this selection procedure only published works, texts accepted for publication, essays in anthologies and articles published in hard copy or digital format magazines in accordance with the current law will be assessed, while internal notes or departmental reports are excluded.

For joint-authored publications the candidates may include a statement declaring the incidence of their contribution. Otherwise, joint-authored publications may be evaluated provided it is possible to identify the individual contribution of the candidate on the basis of its coherence with their overall scientific activity.

The Examining Board will have access to the publications in digital format only for competition purposes, considering the existing legislation concerning publishing and copyright.

Art. 5

Exclusion from the selection procedure

Candidates are conditionally admitted to the selection procedure. The exclusion, due to lack of the requirements on the expiry date, is ordered at any time, even after the discussion has taken place. The exclusion is ordered by a motivated decree signed by the Rector and notified to the candidate concerned to the email address typed in the application.

Art. 6

Composition of the Examining Board

The Board is formed by three Professors mainly from other universities (also foreign universities), proposed with a resolution approved by the Department Board and appointed by a Decree of the Rector. The Board may be supported by one or more experts for the assessment of the language proficiency.

The appointment of the Examining Board must be carried on in compliance with Art. 7 of Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers.

The appointment of the Board shall be published online on the University website.

Art. 7

Roles of the Examining Board

The Examining Board can make use of telematic tools in any stage of the procedure.

the Board verifies the possession of the requirements of each candidate, according to art. 2 of this call. Then, the Board will conduct a preliminary assessment of the candidates, providing a motivated evaluation of the carrier, the publications submitted for the selection procedure and the research activity according to criteria and parameters recognised at international level, identified by Ministerial Decree 243, 25 May 2011, in accordance with the guidelines for the evaluation in Annex no. 1 of the Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers in compliance with Art. 24 of the Italian Law 240/2010.

he Board will admit between 10 and 20 percent of the candidates, for a minimum of six, according to the results of the preliminary assessment, to the public discussion about their qualifications and scientific work; In case the number of candidates who meet the requirements is equal to or less than six, all of them will be admitted to the discussion.

After the discussion the board will grade the qualifications and each publication presented by the candidates admitted to the discussion. The board will write an overall evaluation about the qualifications and the publications of the candidates admitted to the discussion, stating whether they are eligible for the position of this call together with a concise evaluation.

The procedure does not involve additional written exams or other examinations.

The University will publish on 10 May 2023 on the official webpage <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ric240> the date of the discussion and the list of the candidates admitted to it, or the eventual postponement of these communications.

The publication of this announcement is equivalent to a legal notification. Therefore, candidates are required to attend the discussion, without any additional notice, on the day and at the hour specified in the communication mentioned above. Candidates admitted who will not attend the discussion will be considered as withdrawing from the selection procedure.

Attending candidates must present a valid identity document.

The Board must conclude its activities within three months from the appointment decree, unless otherwise specified. The deadline may be postponed due to proven exonerating circumstances communicated by the Board Chair. In case of failure to conclude the activities of the Board by the date established, the Rector shall issue a decree concerning the replacement of members responsible for the delay as well as fixing a new closing date for the conclusion of activities.

Art. 8

Validity of the proceedings

The proceedings of the Board are attested in the minutes of the meetings, together with the related attachments that shall be sent by the Board Chair to the ARU (Ca' Foscari Human Resources Area) – Teaching Staff Office, Ca' Foscari University Teaching Competitions Unit within 7 days after the conclusion of the Board activities for assessment of the proceedings and approval of the minutes by a Decree of the Rector.

Once the minutes have been approved, the proceedings are sent to the recruiting Department Head and published by insertion in the University website at the following address <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ric240>. This insertion will be announced by a notice in the Official Gazette (<http://www.gazzettaufficiale.it/index.jsp>)

The deadline for any appeal starts from the date of publication of this notice.

In line with the legislation on access to documents and with the provisions of Law no. 4, the request for access to the documents can be sent to Ca' Foscari University Teaching Competitions Unit via email (pdoc.concorsi@unive.it), via PEC (Certified e-mail) at the address protocollo@pec.unive.it or according to the indications available at <https://www.unive.it/pag/11143>.

Art. 9

Conclusion of the selection and appointment

Within two months from the receipt of the proceedings, the Department Board proposes to the Board of Governors the comparatively best candidate among the eligible as resulted by the proceedings of the Examining Board. In case of tie, preference will be given to the candidate following these criteria:

- Qualitative Research Standards: candidate's publications shall be present in the sector specific repertoires and in the best-known libraries in the Japanese field; the candidate's papers shall be published in well recognized, peer reviewed journals, and with internationally recognized publishers in Italy and abroad.
- Teaching and scientific requirements: the candidate shall demonstrate scientific contribution in the field of Japanese Language and Japanese Culture and shall have consolidated teaching experience in the same fields (Japanese Language and Culture).

The resolution will take care to highlight, in any case, the precise reasons for the choice of the candidate

Art. 10

Drawing-up of contract

The Administration invites the selected candidate to send all documentation required according to the current legislation and the regulations about competitions within 30 days from the drawing-up of the individual fixed-term employment contract. The contract shall be drawn up by the Rector or her/his representative on behalf of the University.

The selected candidate may be requested to sign the contract by a hand-written or digital signature.

So, the candidates are invited to verify whether they already have the necessary device for the digital signature in line with AGID-Agenzia per l'Italia Digitale – Digital Italy Agency (<https://www.agid.gov.it/it/piattaforme/firma-elettronica-qualificata/prestatori-di-servizi-fiduciari-attivi-in-italia>). In case they do not have it, they are invited to get this device in time for the stipulation of the contract.

The employment is governed by the individual contract and by the regulations in force also regarding the tax, welfare, social treatment for employee income.

The gross annual pay for a fixed-term full-time researcher corresponds to the initial remuneration of the full-time researcher, raised by 20% (nowadays in the amount of € 44.207,68).

The contract will specify the causes of termination. In case of annulment of the selection procedure, the contract will be terminated.

The recruiting Department decides the employment start date based on the research and teaching requirements, and according to the available funds and any other legal constraints.

This Administration reserves the right not to hire or to delay the recruitment in case hindering circumstances arise, whether for legal, organisational or financial motives.

Considering resources available for staff hiring programmes, the University evaluates the researcher during the third year of the contract, in case of achievement of the Scientific Qualification pursuant to art. 16 of Law 240/2010, for the appointment as Associate Professor, pursuant to art. 24 paragraph 5, Law 240/2010.

Art. 11

Incompatibilities

The incompatibilities for public Administration employees, and in particular those resulting from Article 53 of Legislative Decree no. 165/2001, are applied to the employment contract established in accordance with this call.

Art. 12
