Rector Decree No. 716/2024

Reg. No 168594 of 5 July 2024

Subject: Public selection procedure for one fixed-term researcher in compliance with Art. 24, Par. 3, Letter b) of Italian Law No. 240 according to the version before the amendments given by Law no. 79/2022, 30 December 2010, academic recruitment field 05/BIOS-07 (Biochemistry), academic discipline BIOS-07/A (Biochemistry).

The Rector

Having regard	to the Regulations referred to in Article 14 of this call;
Having regard	the note of the Director of the Department of Molecular Sciences and Nanosystems on 10 January 2024 confirming the program for the recruitment in 2024 as approved for the years 2023-2025 and requesting a contract for a researcher as in the object;
Having regard	to the resolutions of the Academic Senate and the Board of Governors respectively on 28 February and 6 March 2024 approving the programs for the teaching and administrative staff for 2024-2026 and approved the starting of the procedures for 2024, among them the one in the object;
Having regard	to the decree no. 613 on 3 July 2024 with which the Director of the Department of Molecular Sciences and Nanosystems communicated the specifics of this call;
Having ascertained	the financial coverage of the position provided by the Department of Molecular Sciences and Nanosystems with the budget provided by the Minister Decree 795/2023;
Having acknowledged	the proposing structure has certified this call's compliance with Italian Law and University Regulations

DECREES

Art. 1 Announcement of the public selection procedure

A public selection procedure is opened for No. 1 fixed-term researcher (36 months) in compliance with Art. 24, Par. 3, Letter b) of Italian Law 240, 30 December 2010.

Academic recruitment field	05/BIOS-07 Biochemistry
Academic discipline	BIOS-07/A (Biochemistry)
Department	Department of Molecular Sciences and Nanosystems
Work place	Scientific Campus via Torino, 155 Mestre (Venice)
Teaching activities, also integrative, and service provided to students and research activities	Teaching commitment: The teaching activity that the researcher will be required to perform, within the discipline of Biochemistry and the department's teaching schedule, include frontal teaching, organizing and carrying out theoretical-practical activities, assisting in final examinations, tutoring undergraduate and PhD students, and any teaching assignments including institutional and additional duties. According to the "Self-certification and verification of teaching and student service duties" regulation, the researcher shall perform teaching, integrative teaching, and student service activities for a total of 350 hours per year. Additionally, the department will annually assign not less than 60 hours per year. The courses fall within the field of basic and applied biochemistry. Basic biochemistry should focus on providing the necessary knowledge to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i) understand the relationship between the structure and function of major biological macromolecules and ii) understand the functioning of the main metabolic pathways in biological systems and their regulatory principles. Applied biochemistry should focus on using this knowledge to develop biomedical and pharmaceutical technologies, addressing issues such as the production and analysis of biomolecules in therapeutic and diagnostic contexts. These courses integrate theory and practice, preparing students for research and innovation in the life sciences field. Specifically, the researcher will be required to teach courses in Biochemistry. Those courses integrate theory and practice, preparing students for research and innovation in the field of biochemistry. The assigned courses may also undergo changes in accordance with the annual teaching plan approved by the Department. Scientific Commitment: The planned research activity should be consistent with the academic discipline of Biochemistry and will focus on the biochemical development and study of new molecules such as peptides, proteins and nucleic acids important for human health, analysing their properties and mechanisms of action. This will include the study of molecular interactions, metabolic pathways, and cellular processes influenced by these molecules, in order to understand their role in physiological and pathological processes. The research will also examine how those molecules can be used to develop novel and innovative therapies to improve human health, with particular attention to the development of innovative drugs, and screening for disease prevention.

	The development of biomaterials and their interaction with human cells and microorganisms should be investigated, aimed at creating innovative models for the study of human pathologies. Those topics are in according to the guidelines of the University's strategic plan and the development plan of the Department of Molecular Sciences and Nanosystems (DSMN).
Foreign languages of which will be verified the knowledge	English. Knowledge of Italian is required for foreigners.
Language of the interview	Italian

Requirements for the admission to the selection procedure

The Selection Procedure is open to both Italian and foreign applicants holding a PhD or an equivalent degree awarded in Italy or abroad.

The participation is limited to candidates who:

- 1) obtained a National Scientific Qualification pursuant to art. 16 of Law 240/2010 for the functions of Associate or Full Professor
- or
- 2) have benefited for at least three years, even not-consecutive, of:
 - a) contracts according to art. 24, paragraph 3, letter a) of Law 240/2010; or
 - b) contracts according to Art. 14, paragraph 1 of Law 230/2005;
 - c) research grants according to art. 51, paragraph 6, of Law 449/1997 and additions, or postdoctoral fellowships according to art. 4 of Law 398/1989, or similar contracts, grants or scholarships in foreign universities;
 - d) research grants according to art. 22 of Law 240/2010.

The contracts and the grants mentioned above can be combined in order to achieve the minimum period of three years referred to in this paragraph, and who satisfy at least one of the following requirements:

- a) being in possession of a Phd degree, a research grant or a contract of research according to art. 24 par. 3 letter a)) in a University different from the one of the master degree or an equivalent qualification. Alternatively, candidates should have achieved their Phd degrees, their grants and research contract in institutions abroad, or in the framework of an agreement for a joint degree between two or more Universities; b) to have completed at least one year (with characteristics of substantial continuity even if distributed over several periods) of documented post-doctoral or equivalent research in academic institutions abroad.

In the case of a PhD awarded abroad, it is necessary to be in possession of either:

- "Equipollenza", i.e. decree of academic recognition of the title, pursuant to Art. 74 of Presidential Decree No. 382/1980. Ca' Foscari University of Venice provides the academic recognition of foreign doctoral qualifications, when the latter are equivalent to PhDs held at Ca' Foscari University. For further information see <https://www.unive.it/pag/8331/>.

For doctorate courses that are not held at Ca' Foscari University of Venice, candidates should contact other universities.

or

- "Equivalenza", i.e. measure of recognition of the PhD for the purposes of participation in calls for researchers in universities and public research organisations, pursuant to Legislative Decree 206/2007 - amended by Legislative Decree 15/2016 (for EU qualifications) - and to Presidential Decree 394/99, art. 49 (for non-EU qualifications). In order to obtain this equivalence of their foreign doctoral degree, candidates must submit an application. Instructions are available on:

<https://www.mur.gov.it/it/aree-tematiche/universita/equipollenze-equivalenza-ed-equiparazioni-tra-titoli-di-studio/titoli-1> [ITA]

The Prime Minister's Office - Civil Service Department - in charge of recognising qualifications for competition purposes, concludes the recognition procedure only in respect of the winner of the selection, who will have to notify the Department and the Ministry of Universities and Research of the publication of the rankings by using the appropriate form.

The winner of the procedure who has obtained his or her doctorate abroad must be in possession of the declaration of equivalence when signing the contract, under penalty of forfeiture of the right to employment.

The following are excluded:

- anyone with a contract for research fellowship or fixed-term research contract as provided in Arts. 22 and 24 of Italian Law 240/10 at Ca' Foscari or at other Italian Universities, whether public, private or online, or bodies under Par. 1 of Art. 22 of Italian law 240/10 for a period, in addition to the intended duration of the competition contract, exceeding a total of 12 years, even if not continuing. Maternity or sick leave as provided in the laws in force shall not be included in the duration of the aforementioned employment contracts.

- who have already been employed on permanent positions as full and associate professors or as researchers, even if no longer in service.

- those with a family relationship or affinity, up to the fourth degree, with professors belonging to the recruiting Department including the Rector, Administrative Manager, any member of the Board of Governors.

The following cannot apply:

- Those who have been denied their civil and political rights;

- Those who have been dismissed or relieved from their role in a Public Administration for consistently inadequate performance;

- Those who have been dismissed or relieved from any other public employment, pursuant to Art. 127, letter d) of Presidential Decree No. 3 of 10 January 1957.

The prescribed requirements must be met by the deadline for applications. Candidates are admitted subject to verification of the required requirements; exclusion from the selection can be ordered at any time, even after the interview has taken place, with a motivated decree from the Rector. This Administration guarantees fairness and equal opportunity to men and women in access in to employment and employment conditions.

Art. 3

Application submission procedure

Candidates must submit their application using the online procedure available at: <https://apps.unive.it/domandeconcorso-en/accesso/rtdb-2024-bios07a>

Until 23 August 2024 at 1:00 pm CET (Central European Time). Beyond this deadline, the link will be deactivated, and it will no longer be possible to complete or edit the application.

You can access the platform using your Italian Tax Identification Code (Codice Fiscale). Foreigners with no Italian Tax Identification Code may generate it, for the sole purpose of the procedure, using the link in the bottom right corner of the online application form (click on "Calculate Italian Tax Identification Code").

The following personal data are required to generate the tax identification code: Name; Surname; Gender; Date of birth (dd/mm/yyyy); Place of birth.

Please note that:

1 – As your place of birth you should indicate your country of birth, which must be written in Italian and in capital letters (e.g.: STATI UNITI, SPAGNA, REGNO UNITO) and selected from the scroll-down menu.

The tax identification code must have 16 characters.

The procedure does not allow saving in draft mode. The application shall be completed in all its required fields and then submitted. A unique alphanumeric code will then be generated and sent to the e-mail address entered in the application; the code may be used to edit the application and replace the attached files, within the deadline.

No other form of submission of the application is allowed.

It is advisable to start the application procedure well in advance of the deadline.

The candidates shall declare, under their own responsibility:

PDF copies of the following shall be attached to the application:

- A valid identity document;
- A curriculum vitae listing academic outputs and teaching activities, written both in Italian and in English. The cv must be signed and submitted with an affidavit, as provided in Arts. 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree 445/2000. The signature can be handwritten or digital. In line with the actions envisaged by the University as part of the "Human Resources Strategy For Researchers" (HRS4R), applicants are invited to attach a motivation letter.
- a signed list of qualifications to be submitted (signature can be handwritten or digital), and related documents;
- a numbered, signed list of the publications to be submitted, for the purposes of Art. 1 of the Regulations of this Call (signature can be handwritten or digital);
- Publications (see Art. 4) and, if required, their PhD dissertation.

The term "Qualifications" refers to academic and professional qualifications, specialisations, licences, training, update and similar titles.

European Union citizens may:

- submit scanned certified copies of their qualifications (certified by a self-declaration affidavit as provided in Art. 19 and 47 of Pres. Decree 445, 28 December 2000 - Attachment A). Candidates must provide an Italian translation of the documents, and the translation must be certified by an embassy or an official translator.

or

- Declare that they meet the requirements using a self-executed certificate or self-declaration affidavit (Attachment A). This document is compulsory if the qualifications are issued by other Public Administrations.

Non-EU citizens with a valid residence permit may submit scanned certified copies of their qualifications. The affidavits must be used in accordance with the procedure laid down for EU citizens whenever it is necessary to provide proof of status, facts or personal qualities certifiable or confirmable by Italian public agencies or if the production of self-executed certificates takes place under international agreements between Italy and the applicant's country of origin.

Non-EU citizens without a regular residence permit may submit scanned copies of qualifications, authenticated or true certified copies of the original.

Certificates issued by the relevant authorities of the applicant's Country of origin must be submitted together with a translation into Italian authenticated by the Italian consular authority certifying conformity with the original.

The Administration shall carry out a verification process on the contents of self-declarations contained in the curriculum vitae.

Documents and publications previously submitted to this or other administrations, or documents previously attached to application forms of other selection procedures cannot be merely mentioned, they must be attached.

Reference may not be made to documents submitted to this or other administrations, or to documents attached to the application for participation in another selection procedure

For any clarifications and information on the procedure, and in the event of difficulties in filling in the application form, please contact the Settore Concorsi of the Teaching Staff Office tel. +39 041/2348217, -8269, -8268, -8135 e-mail: pdoc.concorsi@unive.it. Please note that the University will be closed from 12 until 17 August.

Art. 4

Publications

Candidates must upload their publications in pdf, dividing them into the appropriate four fields of electronic procedure of the capacity of 50 MB each (please note that you can upload more than one publication in each field, zipped in one folder. The names of each file folder must not be more than 20 characters long, and it must start with the number corresponding to the publication in the list you have submitted).

Publications that are not uploaded with the application in the manner and by the deadline of this call shall not be taken into consideration by the Examining Board.

Links to publications or works saved in online storage clouds or webpages will not be considered as valid for the evaluation.

Should the number of publications exceed the maximum number indicated in the call, the Board will evaluate the works in the order listed by the candidate, up to the limit provided.

For the purposes of this selection procedure, only published works, texts accepted for publication, essays in anthologies and articles published in hard copy or digital format magazines in accordance with the current law will be assessed, while internal notes or departmental reports are excluded.

Texts or articles accepted for publication within the deadline of this call must be submitted with the acceptance letter by the publisher.

For joint-authored publications the candidates may include a statement declaring the incidence of their contribution. Otherwise, joint-authored publications may be evaluated provided it is possible to identify the individual contribution of the candidate on the basis of its coherence with their overall academic activity.

The Examining Board will have access to the publications in digital format only for purposes connected to this call, in consideration of the existing legislation concerning publishing and copyright.

Art. 5

Exclusion from the selection procedure

Candidates are conditionally admitted to the selection procedure. The exclusion, due to lack of the requirements on the expiry date, is ordered at any time, even after the discussion has taken place. The exclusion is ordered by a motivated decree signed by the Rector and notified to the candidate concerned to the email address typed in the application.

Art. 6

Composition of the Examining Board

The Board, made up of at least three members chosen among the tenured Professors, mainly from other universities, including foreign ones, shall be proposed by means of a resolution passed by the Department Board and appointed by a Rector's Decree. In order to ascertain the language proficiency of the candidate, the Board may draw upon the support of one or more experts.

The appointment of the Examining Board shall be carried out in compliance with Art. 7 of Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term tenure-track researchers.

The appointment of the Board is published online on the University website.

The Board may use telematic tools for team work at all stages of the procedure.

The Board shall conclude its activities within three months after the date of the appointment decree, unless otherwise specified. The deadline may be postponed due to proven and exceptional circumstances indicated by the Chair of the Board. Should the Board fail to complete the activities within the set deadline, the Rector shall issue a decree concerning the replacement of members responsible for the delay as well as fixing a new closing date for the completion of activities

Art. 7

Roles of the Examining Board

For the purposes of admission to the procedure, the Board shall verify, the Board shall verify that the candidates are in possession of the requirements, as follow:

- they hold a PhD;
- that they have held a fixed-term researcher contracts pursuant to Article 24, paragraph 3, letter a) of Law no. 240/2010 for at least one year, or that they have held of one or more research grants pursuant to Article 22 of Law no. 240/2010, for a total period of no less than three years as it stood prior to the date of implementation of Law no. 79/2022

The evaluation procedure takes place in two stages:

1) Preliminary assessment:

The Board proceeds to the preliminary assessment of the candidates who meet the requirements, with a reasoned analytical judgement on the qualifications, the curriculum and the academic outputs, including the doctoral thesis, according to the criteria and parameters, also recognised internationally, identified by Ministerial Decree no. 243 of 25 May 2011.

Following the preliminary assessment, the Board admits to the public discussion of their titles and academic outputs the comparatively best, by between 10 and 20 per cent and in any case not less than six; all candidates will be admitted to the discussion if the number is equal to or less than six.

On 20 September 2024, this University will publish on its website at <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ric240> the date of the selection interview and the list of admitted candidates, or news of any postponement of such communications.

The above publication has the value of notification for all intents and purposes. Therefore, candidates admitted to the interview are required to attend the meeting, without prior notice, on the day and at the time indicated in the notice. Failure to appear will be considered as an explicit and definitive withdrawal from the selection.

2) Interview

The second stage consists of the public interview on the qualifications and academic outputs. The procedure does not involve any additional written exams or oral examinations, except for the oral test to assess the foreign language proficiency required by this notice.

Applicants shall present a valid identity document.

In the case of an online interview, the Board shall identify the platform to be used and send the relevant invitation (link) for participation to the candidates admitted, well in advance.

Following the discussion, the Board will identify the winner of the selection and place the other successful candidate(s) on a comparative shortlist.

Art. 8 Validity of the proceedings

The proceedings of the Board are attested in the minutes of the meetings, together with the related attachments that shall be sent by the Board Chair to the ARU (Ca' Foscari Human Resources Area) – Teaching Staff Office, Ca' Foscari University Teaching Competitions Unit within 7 days after the conclusion of the Board activities for assessment of the proceedings and approval of the minutes by a Decree of the Rector.

Once the minutes have been approved, the proceedings are sent to the recruiting Department Head and published by insertion in the University website at the following address <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ric240>. This insertion will be announced by a notice in the Official Gazette (<http://www.gazzettaufficiale.it/index.jsp>)

The deadline for any appeal starts from the date of publication of this notice.

In line with the legislation on access to documents and with the provisions of Law no. 4, the request for access to the documents can be sent to Ca' Foscari University Teaching Competitions Unit via email (pdoc.concorsi@unive.it), via PEC (Certified e-mail) at the address protocollo@pec.unive.it or according to the indications available at <https://www.unive.it/pag/11143>.

Art. 9 Conclusion of the selection and appointment

Within two months from the receipt of the proceedings, the Department Board proposes to the Board of Governors the comparatively best candidate among the eligible as resulted by the proceedings of the Examining Board. In case of tie, preference will be given to the candidate whose documented scientific expertise finds correlations with research activities characterized by an interdisciplinary vision. The resolution will take care to highlight, in any case, the precise reasons for the choice of the candidate

Art. 10 Drawing-up of contract

The Administration invites the selected candidate to send all documentation required according to the current legislation and the regulations about competitions within 30 days from the drawing-up of the individual fixed-term employment contract. The contract shall be drawn up by the Rector or her/his representative on behalf of the University.

The selected candidate may be requested to sign the contract by a hand-written or digital signature.

So, the candidates are invited to verify whether they already have the necessary device for the digital signature in line with AGID-Agenzia per l'Italia Digitale – Digital Italy Agency (<https://www.agid.gov.it/it/piattaforme/firma-elettronica-qualificata/prestatori-di-servizi-fiduciari-attivi-in-italia>). In case they do not have it, they are invited to get this device in time for the stipulation of the contract.

The employment is governed by the individual contract and by the regulations in force also regarding the tax, welfare, social treatment for employee income.

The gross annual pay for a fixed-term full-time researcher corresponds to the initial remuneration of the full-time researcher, raised by 20% (nowadays in the amount of € 44.640,91).

The contract will specify the causes of termination. In case of annulment of the selection procedure, the contract will be terminated.

The recruiting Department decides the employment start date based on the research and teaching requirements, and according to the available funds and any other legal constraints.

This Administration reserves the right not to hire or to delay the recruitment in case hindering circumstances arise, whether for legal, organisational or financial motives.

Considering resources available for staff hiring programmes, the University evaluates the researcher during the third year of the contract, in case of achievement of the Scientific Qualification pursuant to art. 16 of Law 240/2010, for the appointment as Associate Professor, pursuant to art. 24 paragraph 5, Law 240/2010.

Art. 11 Incompatibilities

The incompatibilities for public administrations employees and in particular those resulting from the regulatory provisions of Article 53 of Legislative Decree 165/2001 shall apply to the employment contract.

The contract is incompatible with:

- (a) any other employment relationship with public or private entities, even part-time or fixed-term, without prejudice to the last paragraph of this Article;
- (b) contracts and research grants also at other universities or public research institutions;
- (c) doctoral and post-doctoral fellowships in general, with any fellowship in any capacity awarded by national or foreign institutions, unless it is for the purpose of international mobility for research purposes.

For matters not provided for in this Article, the applicable laws and regulations shall apply to incompatibilities and authorisations to perform external assignments.

Pursuant to Article 24, paragraph 9-bis of Law No. 240/2010, for the entire duration of the contract, the public employee is placed on leave or in a position of non-tenure track, without any allowance or social security contributions, if foreseen by the position the candidate holds.

Art. 12 Information about the processing of personal data

The processing of personal data provided by candidates or otherwise acquired by the University is aimed only for the purposes of the selection procedure and will be managed in compliance with national and Community legislation (Legislative Decree 196/2003 and EU Regulation 2016/679). The provision of data is necessary to evaluate candidates' requirements and qualifications.

See the "Privacy" attachment for further details.

The Processing Controller is Ca' Foscari University of Venice, based in Dorsoduro no. 3246, 30123 Venice (Italy) - certified electronic mail protocollo@pec.unive.it.
