How to apply

Please proceed according to the following four steps.

1. Online registration for the exchange program via Mobility-Online

Deadlines: May 1, 2021 (winter semester 2021/22)
November 1, 2021 (summer semester 2022)

a) Before you apply, please make sure that you have been nominated by your home university for the exchange program at the University of Stuttgart! After your nomination you will receive the Mobility-Online link.

b) Follow the instructions given in the portal and upload:

 Required documents

- Passport-sized picture
- Transcript of records from your home university (either in English or in German)
- Learning agreement (signed by you and your home university)
- Confirmation of academic supervision (if you are writing a thesis)
- (obligatory) registration for the intensive German course (IGC); see details below
- Proof of language skills depending on the language of instruction of the courses. Please note that your language skills have to be clearly indicated (A1 to C2 in German or English).

For courses taught in German

Your German + English proficiency by the registration deadline	Participation in the intensive German course (course fee € 250)
C 1 GER	optional
B 1 GER or B 2 GER	optional but highly recommended
A 2 GER + B 2 ENG	mandatory

Required are the original and an official translation into German or English!

For courses taught in English

Your English + German proficiency by the registration deadline	Participation in the intensive German course (course fee € 250)
B 2 ENG + A 1 GER	optional but highly recommended
B 2 ENG + none GER	mandatory

Required are the original and an official translation into German or English!

* English taught Bachelor courses are rare. Courses in international MSc programs (taught in English) can only be taken on request. Prerequisite: You are in your 3rd or 4th year of study. Please contact your academic Erasmus+ advisor for further information.

c) After you have uploaded your complete documents, they will be automatically sent to your academic Erasmus+ advisor in Stuttgart who has to check them and sign the learning agreement. Please upload the signed final learning agreement (signed by you, your home university and the academic Erasmus+ advisor at the University of Stuttgart) to your Mobility-Online account.

Thesis request:

Incoming students who would like to write a Bachelor's or Master's thesis at our university are highly recommended to apply for a 1-year exchange (2 semesters):

- 1st semester: The incoming student will take courses and look independently for a thesis topic and an academic supervisor during the exchange semester.
- 2nd semester: The incoming student may write the thesis, if s/he has found a thesis topic and an academic supervisor. If not s/he will be able to take courses at our university instead or write the thesis at e. g. the home institution.

You will have to find an academic supervisor for your thesis yourself. The International Office and the academic Erasmus+ advisor are not able to assist in finding a suitable thesis topic and supervisor. You can only be enrolled as a student at the University of Stuttgart after we have received a confirmation from your thesis supervisor in Stuttgart.

2. Online application for admission to the university via C@MPUS

➔ Deadlines: June 1, 2021 (winter semester 2021/22)
December 1, 2021 (summer semester 2022)

After you have completed your Mobility-Online registration you have to apply online for admission as Exchange program student at:

<https://campus.uni-stuttgart.de/cusonline/webnav.ini>

C@MPUS will be open for winter semester applications for Exchange program students from May 1 onwards and for summer semester applications from November 1 onwards. Please do not apply before those dates!

 Follow the instructions given and upload:

- Transcript of records (in English or German)
- Higher education entrance qualification (e.g. baccalauréat, high school diploma...)

Required are the original and an official translation into German or English!

3. Admission via C@MPUS

If your application is correct and complete by the given deadline, you will be able to download your letter of admission (Zulassungsbescheid) no later than four weeks after the deadline.

4. Enrollment (takes place in person after your arrival)

Please continue with the enrollment procedure AFTER your arrival in Stuttgart via your C@MPUS applicant account. We will provide you with further details upon arrival. If you have further questions, please contact: incoming@ia.uni-stuttgart.de

Visa regulations

Students from the EU, UK, Australia, Brazil, Canada, Japan, South Korea and the US can enter Germany without a visa. They have to apply for a residence permit after their arrival in Stuttgart. Students from non-EU countries other than mentioned above have to apply for a student visa at the German consulate of their home country at least four to five months previous to their arrival in Stuttgart. Students who need a visa will receive a letter of invitation as soon as they have submitted their application documents and have been admitted.

Non-EU students already studying in an EU country have two options:

1. Application for a German visa in their EU host country and application for a German residence permit upon arrival in Germany
2. Application for a German residence permit via our International Office approx. three months before travelling to Germany – no visa required

We need to find out which option applies to you and provide you with the relevant information. Thus, please send an e-mail to incoming@ia.uni-stuttgart.de.

Intensive German course (IGC)

The University of Stuttgart offers an intensive German course for exchange students within partnership and Erasmus+ programs. This course includes an orientation program (study counseling, group sessions for guidance on formalities you need to comply with, information on living in Germany, etc.). Please note: A course fee of EUR 250 will be charged and has to be paid by the student. Please register for the course via your Mobility-Online account.

Accommodation*

We are not able to provide rooms for the students during the Erasmus+ exchange period. Students have to find accommodation on their own. Please arrange your housing matters as early as possible. Further information about housing can be found here:

www.uni-stuttgart.de/en/study/living-in-stuttgart/housing/index.html

We strongly recommend to apply as soon as possible to the Studierendenwerk Stuttgart (SWS) or VSSW for a student dormitory:

www.studierendenwerk-stuttgart.de/en/onlinebewerbung-wohnen

<https://www.vssw.de/>

You do NOT need to be officially admitted or enrolled to apply for student housing!

 Please note:

You should not arrive in Stuttgart without having organized a place to stay for the time you are searching for accommodation.

Health Insurance

In order to be enrolled at the University of Stuttgart EU citizens are required to hold the European Health Insurance Card. Please do not forget to get the card from your health insurance provider before you come to Germany. Non-EU citizens have to purchase a student health insurance in Germany after their arrival. Please contact: incoming@ia.uni-stuttgart.de for further information.
