Courses and Study Requirements

LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION

English and Swedish

COURSE LOAD

Exchange students are expected to study full-time, 30 credits/semester (usually 4 courses of 7,5 credits each). Note that full-time studies is a condition for getting a residence permit from the Swedish Migration Agency.

It is advisable to carefully think through the selection of courses before putting together the study plan since it might be difficult to make changes at a later stage in the process. Lund University has no formal add and drop period at the beginning of the semester, which means that there are limited chances to change courses upon arrival. Therefore, it is important that your choice of priority/alternative for each course is accurately selected.

COURSES FOR EXCHANGE STUDENTS

- Find courses in English here: <https://www.ht.lu.se/en/international/information-for-nominated-exchange-students/find-available-courses>
- Special Area Studies (SAS) in English: Exchange students can apply for 'Special Area Study' (SAS) courses in subjects such as Swedish culture and society, European studies, regional courses and global issues of contemporary interest. These courses do not usually require previous studies in the subject as an admission requirement. This gives exchange students the opportunity to gain new knowledge in subjects that may be outside of the student's normal degree programme. www.lunduniversity.lu.se/sas
- Swedish Language Courses for exchange students (SVE): www.lunduniversity.lu.se/exchange-swedish (not available for Danish and Norwegian students). Swedish Language Courses can be counted within or in addition to a full-time study load.
- Introductory Swedish Course (SUSA) for exchange students during the Orientation Weeks: www.lunduniversity.lu.se/exchange-swedish

STUDYING IN SWEDISH

Students with a background in Scandinavian studies or who have studied in a Nordic school system may be able to apply for courses with Swedish as the language of instruction. Find courses: <https://www.ht.lu.se/utbildning/utbildningsutbud/>

Please note! If you find a course on a webpage stating "Kan bara sökas inom utbildningsprogram" – the course is not available.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

It is recommended that the student's level of English language proficiency is equivalent to IELTS 6.5/ TOEFL 90.

The Swedish language requirement for exchange students wishing to study Swedish-taught courses is B2 or C1 (depending on course) or equivalent.

SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

The admission requirements (prerequisites) for each course can be found on the website of the relevant department. Many courses require at least 1 year of full-time studies within the subject area.

RESTRICTIONS AND LIMITATIONS

- There is a limited availability of courses at the Lund University School of Economics and Management (LUSEM). Students applying through our agreement can at most be accepted to 15 credits at LUSEM per semester.
- Courses in Journalism are not available.
- The Faculty of Performing Arts, the Malmö Art Academy and the Faculty of Medicine mainly admit students within specific faculty/department agreements.
- Note, not all courses in English are open to exchange students.
