COURSE DETAILS

Study Courses	Generally, all courses are open to exchange students. Course attendance in the departments of Architecture and Landscape Planning is limited, though. Additionally, access to courses of the double degree/master program "Innovation Management, Entrepreneurship and Sustainability" (IMES) is restricted.
Course Catalogue & Course Language	Most of the courses (90%) are taught in German but we also offer a number of English taught courses. The course offerings vary from semester to semester but usually courses that are offered during one summer or winter semester will be offered again the next summer or winter semester. The final course list is only available shortly before the semester starts, i.e. in late February/March (summer semesters) and late August/September (winter semesters). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - General Course Information - Online Course Catalogue
Short explanation: How to read our study guides	Bachelor programs: BA / B.Sc Master programs: MA / M.Sc SWS = Weekly Contact Hours (1 SWS equals approx. 1,5 ECTS) WS = Winter Semester SS = Summer Semester VL = Lecture UE = Exercise SE = Seminar
German Grading System	1,0 - 1,5 = ECTS grade A (excellent) 1,6 - 2,0 = ECTS grade B (good) 2,1 - 3,0 = ECTS grade C (good/satisfactory) 3,1 - 3,5 = ECTS grade D (satisfactory) 3,6 - 4,0 = ECTS grade E (sufficient) 4,1 - 5,0 = ECTS grade F (failed)
ECTS	For the successful attendance of courses students receive ECTS credits. In few cases these ECTS credits have to be converted from SWS (weekly contact hours) or Leistungspunkten (LP), though.

LANGUAGE DETAILS

Language Requirements	Students who apply for a German taught study course can apply with German proficiency on at least A2.2 level of the CEFR but additionally a certificate on B1 level or higher must be provided before the semester starts. Only special program students, students working on their thesis and students who will attend an English taught course can instead provide an English language certificate on B2 level.
Language Certificates	Certificates have to be issued by certified language institutes.
Pre-semester intensive German Courses	Preceding each semester TU Berlin's ZEMS (Zentraleinrichtung Moderne Sprachen) offers pre-semester German intensive courses. ERASMUS+ students are only allowed to attend these courses from level B1 on and higher! The course fee is €275 for 80 contact hours covering four weeks. Winter semester 2022/23: September 5 - 30, 2022 Summer semester 2023: March 6 - 31, 2023
Housing	The International Office has a very small dormitory room contingent provided by the StudierendenWERK Berlin. Students can apply for one of these rooms but also have to be prepared to look for housing on the free market. Detailed dorm room application information will be provided after the students' acceptance.
Living Expenses	Housing: Between €350-500 Food/Drink: approx. €200 Books: €30 (depending on the field of study) Public transportation: approx. €200 ("Semesterticket") payable once per semester Please note that these figures merely represent a rough estimate.
Health Insurance/other Insurances	Health Insurance Students with a valid European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) do not need an extra insurance. Those without will either have to register with a German statutory health insurance or get private health insurance and apply for a waiver of the statutory health insurance requirement upon arrival in Berlin. Third Party Liability Insurance It is the students' responsibility to acquire an insurance (from home) for personal belongings, accidents and third-party liability while studying in Germany. TU Berlin cannot not cover any losses that may occur.
Student Jobs	It is difficult to find a student job in Berlin, so international students should not base their finances on a student job.
Visa	If necessary the sending and receiving institutions will provide assistance in securing visas for incoming and outbound mobile participants, according to the requirements of the ERASMUS+ Charter for Higher Education www.betreuung-int-stud.tu-berlin.de
