The Department of Linguistic and Comparative Cultural studies of Ca' Foscari University of Venice, having regard to the resolution of the Departmental Council of 16/07/2025 establishing the research programmes for awarding of the short-term research fellowships in “Social and cultural aspects of the relationship between water resources and energy, and implications for the social acceptability of the hydropower sector” lasting 19 months, with the possibility of renewal within the limits of art. 4 of the Regulations for awarding of university short-term research fellowships. The expected starting date is 15/05/2026.

The short-term research fellowship is awarded for the purpose of collaboration with the following research programme of the Department of Linguistic and Comparative Cultural studies - abstract:

The overall aim of the collaboration is to address the social and cultural dimensions of water resources, focusing on the multifaceted nature of the public debate on water and its implications for the social acceptability of hydropower.

The collaboration will pursue the following specific objectives:

- To analyse the multifaceted nature of the public debate on water.
- To analyse the ways in which tensions and conflicts between the different sides of the water debate affect water resource policies and, in particular, the pathways to social acceptance of hydropower.
- To analyse, based on the results of the activities outlined in the two previous points, the possible implications for policy processes of a potential reshaping of the public debate on water resources.

The amount of the short-term research fellowship is equal to 58.103,00 gross percipient and will be subject to taxation according to current regulations. It will be paid in bimonthly instalments after certification of the regular performance of the activity. Deadline: 24/04/2026.

In case the deadline is on Saturdays, Sundays or on holidays it is extended to the first working day thereafter.

Citizens belonging to European Union member states and non-community citizens in possession of the following qualifications may take part in the selection:

- a) People with master's degree (or equivalent) in the LM-56 class (Economics) and an adequate scientific and professional cv are eligible.

Applicants must hold all the requisites within the call deadline. The qualifications will be evaluated by a Commission that examines the eligibility and qualifications of the candidates and makes a merit rank of them.

Skills required

- The candidate must demonstrate expertise in analysing issues relating to the social and cultural aspects of the relationship between water resources and energy, with a particular focus on the public debate surrounding this topic.
- The candidate must have carried out research relevant to the subjects covered by the call for applications.
- The candidate must be capable of conducting research within the fields of economic sociology and the sociology of the environment and the territory.

Any other evaluable qualifications

- advanced qualifications (e.g. PhD) in Spatial Planning and Public Policy
- research and teaching assignments relating to the topics covered in the call for applications
- scientific publications on the topics covered by the call for proposals

Incompatibility

The short-term research fellowship may not overlap with:

- other short-term research fellowships granted in any capacity, apart from those granted by national or foreign research institutes in order to integrate with periods abroad the specific activity foreseen by the work plan of the appointed fellow;
- attendance of PhD courses with short-term research fellowship and medical specialization, in Italy and abroad;
- research grants "assegni di ricerca"

Short-term Research Fellowship holders may carry out self-employed work or occasional or permanent collaborations, as long as this is coherent with the ongoing research, upon approval and on the condition that:

- does not involve a conflict of interest with the specific research activity carried out;
- does not prejudice the university, in relation to the activities carried out.

Subordinate employment contracts holders, in addition to obtaining permission by the university, must provide the authorization of their employer.

In the specific case that the subordinate employment contract started prior to the awarding of the fellowship, compatibility with the existing employment will have to be assessed; if the assessment yields a negative result, the Short-term Research Fellowship will not be awarded; in the case of a positive result, the successful candidate will have to provide the authorization of his/her employer within 15 days.

In the event that the subordinate employment contract will start once the fellowship is ongoing, the successful applicant is required to notify this change at least 30 days before the start of the employment contract for an assessment of compatibility; if the assessment is negative, the fellowship will cease by the start of the employment contract; in the event of a positive outcome, the successful applicant must provide the authorization of his/her employer within 15 days.

The awarding of the short-term research fellowship does not imply the establishment of any employment contract, nor does it give rise to any rights of access to positions of employment at the university
