Qualifications refer to academic qualifications, professional qualifications, specialisations, licenses, training, updates and so on.

European Union citizens may:

- Submit scanned copies of qualifications, that are certified copies of the originals with self-executed affidavit as provided in Arts 19 and 47 of Pres. Decree 445, 28 December 2000 (attachment A); if written in a foreign language, said qualifications shall include a sworn Italian translation performed by embassy or consulate translators or by an official translator;

or

- Prove that they have the necessary qualifications using the self-executed certificate or self-executed affidavit (Attachment A). The latter mode is the only accepted for qualifications issued by other Public Administrations.

Non-EU citizens with a regular residence permit may submit scanned copies of qualifications, authenticated or true certified copies of the original. The self-executed certificates must be used in accordance with the procedure laid down for EU citizens whenever it is necessary to provide proof of status, facts or personal qualities certifiable or confirmable by Italian public agencies or if the production of self-executed certificates takes place under international agreements between Italy and the applicant's country of origin.

Non-EU citizens without a regular residence permit may submit scanned copies of qualifications, authenticated or true certified copies of the original.

Certificates issued by the relevant authorities of the applicant's Country of origin must be submitted together with a translation into Italian authenticated by the Italian consular authority certifying conformity with the original.

The Administration shall carry out a verification process on the contents of substitute declarations contained in the curriculum vitae.

No reference may be made to documents presented to this or other administrations or to documents attached to the application forms of other selection procedures.

Art. 4 Publications

Candidates must upload their publications in pdf, dividing them into the appropriate four fields of electronic procedure of the capacity of 50 MB each (in each field can be inserted multiple publications grouped into a single file or a .zip folder).

Published works not uploaded within the closing date shall not be taken into consideration by the Examining Board.

If a candidate presents more publications than required, the Commission will evaluate the publications, in the order specified in the list of publications produced by the candidate, up to the limit provided.

For the purposes of this selection procedure only published works or texts accepted for publication as provided under current standards shall be accepted for evaluation, along with essays in anthologies and journal articles published in hard copy or digital format excluding internal notes or departmental reports.

For joint-authored publications, the candidates may include a statement confirming their contribution. Otherwise, joint-authored publications may be evaluated provided it is possible to identify the individual contribution of the candidate on the basis of its coherence with their overall scientific activity.

Art. 5 Exclusion from selection procedure

Candidates are conditionally admitted to the selection procedure and may be excluded from the procedure at any time for failure to meet the requirements by means of a reasoned Rector's decree.

Failure to comply with requirements laid down in Arts. 2 and 3 herein represents a reason for exclusion from the selection procedure.

Art. 6 Composition of the Examining Board

The Board is identified in accordance with the provisions of the University Regulation governing the public selection procedure for the permanent position of Full and Associate Professor and will be appointed by a Rector's Decree.

The appointment of the Examining Board must comply with the rules concerning incompatibility and conflict of interest and the conditions laid down in the Ethics Code.

The commission can be integrated at any time from one or more experts to assessment of the required foreign language/languages.

The appointment of the Board shall be published online on the University website.

Art. 7 Roles of the Examining Board

The Board conducts, during a private session, a comparative evaluation on the basis of the candidates' scientific publications, curriculum vitae and teaching experience.

The three candidates judged comparatively more meritorious as a result of the above evaluation procedure (or a smaller number only if the candidates are less than three) will be admitted to the interview, which shall be conducted in open session.

At the time of the interview, the Board shall assess the knowledge of the language indicated in art. 1 of this call.

The evaluation is based on criteria predetermined by the Board in accordance with internationally recognized quality standards set out in art. 1 of this call.

The University will publish on March, 15th 2018 on its website at the following address <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ass> the interview date, with details of candidates admitted, or the possible postponement of the publication. The said publication will be made at least 7 days prior to the interview and it is equivalent to notification of the law in effect. Therefore, candidates are required to appear for the interview, without any notice, in the place, the day and hour specified in the notice. Failure to attend this interview shall be considered explicit outright proof of their decision to withdraw from the selection process.

Attending candidates must present a valid identity document.

At the end of the interviews the Board shall render a final judgment and shall identify the deserving candidates and, between them, the comparatively best candidate, based on the assessment in paragraph 1 and on the interview.

The Board shall conduct the work in the presence of all the members and takes its decisions by an absolute majority of the members.

The Board may use computerised tools for their activities.

The Board must conclude its activities within two months of the date of the provision for the appointment, unless otherwise specified in the same. The closing date may be extended for demonstratively exceptional reasons given by the Board Chair. In the case of failure to conclude activities by the date established, the Rector shall issue a reasoned provision to begin procedures for the replacement of members responsible for the delay as well as establishing a new closing date for the conclusion of activities.

Art. 8 Validity of the proceedings

The Board proceedings are attested in the minutes of the meetings, together with the related individual and collegial opinions that shall be sent by the Board Chair to the ARU – Ufficio Personale Docente e CEL, Settore Concorsi within 7 days after the conclusion of the Board activities for assessment of the proceedings and approval of the minutes by Rector's Decree.

Once the minutes have been approved, the proceedings are sent to the recruiting Department Head and published by insertion in the University website announced by notice in the Official Gazette - Special Series IV.

The deadline for any appeal starts from the date of publication of this notice.

Art. 9 Choice of the selected candidate

Within one month of the approval of the proceedings, the Department Board proposes to the Board of Trustees -which decides within thirty days- the appointment of the candidate who is comparatively best among those declared eligible by the Examining Board.

If the comparatively best candidate refuses the job, the Department, within a month and respecting the constraints of the law regarding employ and the compatibility with the financial resources, may submit to the Board of Trustees the proposal to call the second comparatively best candidate among those identified by the Examining Board as worthy of the call.

Art. 10 Appointment

The appointment is made by a Rector's Decree.

The employment start date shall be established by the recruiting Department as per Art. 1 on the basis of research and teaching requirements, depending on funding available and any legal constraints.

The remuneration for the Associate professor shall be that specified by Pres. Decree 232 of 15 December 2011, as amended and supplemented.
