Non-EU citizens with a regular residence permit may submit scanned copies of qualifications, authenticated or true certified copies of the original. The self-executed certificates must be used in accordance with the procedure laid down for EU citizens whenever it is necessary to provide proof of status, facts or personal qualities certifiable or confirmable by Italian public agencies or if the production of self-executed certificates takes place under international agreements between Italy and the applicant's country of origin.

Non-EU citizens without a regular residence permit may submit scanned copies of qualifications, authenticated or true certified copies of the original.

Certificates issued by the relevant authorities of the applicant's Country of origin must be submitted together with a translation into Italian authenticated by the Italian consular authority certifying conformity with the original.

The Administration shall carry out a verification process on the contents of substitute declarations contained in the curriculum vitae.

No reference may be made to documents presented to this or other administrations or to documents attached to the application forms of other selection procedures.

Art. 4 Publications

Candidates must upload their publications in pdf, dividing them into the appropriate four fields of electronic procedure of the capacity of 50 MB each (in each field can be inserted multiple publications grouped into a single file or a .zip folder. It is recommended that the name of the single file or the ones in the compressed folder does not exceed 20 characters).

Published works not uploaded within the closing date shall not be taken into consideration by the Examining Board.

If a candidate presents more publications than required, the Commission will evaluate the publications, in the order specified in the list of publications produced by the candidate, up to the limit provided.

For the purposes of this selection procedure only published works or texts accepted for publication as provided under current standards shall be accepted for evaluation, along with essays in anthologies and journal articles published in hard copy or digital format excluding internal notes or departmental reports.

For joint-authored publications, the candidates may include a statement confirming their contribution. Otherwise, joint-authored publications may be evaluated provided it is possible to identify the individual contribution of the candidate on the basis of its coherence with their overall scientific activity.

For the purposes of this selection procedure only published works or texts accepted for publication as provided in current law shall be accepted for assessment, along with essays in anthologies and articles published in hard copy or digital format magazines excluding internal notes or departmental reports; PhD dissertations or dissertations for equivalent qualifications shall be examined even if the above conditions are not met.

For joint-authored publications the candidates may include a statement confirming their contribution. Otherwise, joint-authored publications may be evaluated provided it is possible to identify the individual contribution of the candidate on the basis of its coherence with their overall scientific activity.

Candidates participating in more than one selection procedure must submit one envelope with their published works (in three copies, if printed) for each procedure.

The Examining Board will have access to the publications in digital format only for competition purposes, taking into account the existing legislation concerning publishing and copyright.

Art. 5 Exclusion from selection procedure

Candidates are conditionally admitted to the selection procedure and may be excluded from the procedure at any time for failure to meet the requirements by means of a reasoned Rector's decree.

Failure to comply with requirements laid down in Arts. 2 and 3 herein represents a reason for exclusion from the selection procedure.

Art. 6 Composition of the Examining Board

The Board, made up of three members chosen from tenured professors, of which at least two from other universities (also foreign universities), shall be proposed by means of a resolution passed by the Department Board and appointed by a Rector's Decree. The Board may draw upon the support of one or more experts for the language proficiency assessment.

The appointment of the Examining Board must be carried on in compliance with Art. 7 of Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers
The appointment of the Board shall be published online on the University website.

Art. 7

Roles of the Examining Board

The Board shall carry out the preliminary assessment of candidates, providing motivated evaluations of qualifications, curriculum vitae and scientific work, including their doctoral thesis, according to criteria and parameters recognised at international level, identified by means of Ministerial Decree 243, 25 May 2011, to be carried out in accordance with the guidelines for the evaluation in Annex no. 1 of the Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers in compliance with Art. 24 of the Italian Law 240/10.

Following the preliminary assessment the Board will admit the most worthy candidates - 10 to 20 per cent of the original candidates and no less than six in number - to participate in a public discussion of their qualifications and scientific work; all candidates shall be admitted to the discussion should their total number be equal to or less than six.

After the discussion the board will grade the qualifications and each of the published works presented by the candidates admitted to said discussion. The board will draw up a collective overall evaluation of the candidates admitted to the discussion of their qualifications and published works, stating whether they are eligible for the competition and expressing a concise evaluation.

The assessment of candidates involves no written or oral examinations apart from the oral examination testing their knowledge of a foreign language provided for under Art. 1 of the competition regulations; the oral examination shall take place on the occasion of the discussion of their qualifications and published works.

The University will publish July, 4th 2018 on its website at the following address <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ric240> the discussion date, with details of candidates admitted, or the possible postponement of the publication. The said publication is equivalent to notification of the law in effect. Therefore, candidates are required to appear for the discussion, without notice, in the place, the day and hour specified in the notice. Failure to attend this discussion shall be considered explicit outright proof of their decision to withdraw from the selection process.

Attending candidates must present a valid identity document.

The Board may use electronic media if these are appropriate for the activities to be carried out.

The Board must conclude its activities within three months of the appointment decree, unless otherwise specified. The closing date may be deferred for proven exceptional motives given by the Board Chair. In the case of failure to conclude activities by the date established, the Rector shall issue a reasoned decree giving rise to procedures for the replacement of members held to be responsible for the delay as well as establishing a new closing date for the conclusion of activities.

Art. 8

Validity of the proceedings

The Board proceedings are attested in the minutes of the meetings, together with the related attachments that shall be sent by the Board Chair to the ARU (Ca' Foscari Human Resources Area) – Ufficio Personale Docente e CEL Settore Concorsi within 7 days after the conclusion of the Board activities for assessment of the proceedings and approval of the minutes by Rector's Decree.

Once the minutes have been approved, the proceedings are sent to the recruiting Department Head and published by insertion in the University website at the following address <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ric240>.

This insertion will be announced by notice in the Official Gazzette (<http://www.gazzettaufficiale.it/index.jsp>). From the date of publication of this notice starts the deadline for any appeal.

Art. 9

Announcement of winner and appointment

Within two months of the receipt of the proceedings, the Department Board proposes to the Board of Trustees the choice of the candidate who is comparatively best among those declared eligible as shown by the proceedings of the Examining Board. In case of ex aequo evaluation, the choice must be based on the following criterions:

- 1) Coherence with the call requirements;
- 2) Experience in University teaching.

Art. 10

Università
Ca' Foscari
Venezia

Drawing-up of contract

The Administration invites the person concerned to send all documentation required under current legislation and the competition regulations within 30 days of the drawing-up of the individual fixed-term employment contract. The contract shall be drawn up by the Rector or her/his representative on behalf of the University.

The gross annual pay for fixed-term full-time researcher corresponds to the initial remuneration of the full-time researcher, high of 20%.

The contract will specify the causes of termination; in any case is a cause of termination of the contract the annulment of the selection procedure, which is its prerequisite.

The employment start date shall be established by the recruiting Department on the basis of research and teaching requirements, and depending on funding available and any legal constraints.

Should circumstances arise hindering recruitment - whether for legal, organisational or financial motives, prior to the completion of the selection procedures, this Administration reserves the right not to hire or to delay recruitment.

Art. 11

Personal information processing

Personal information supplied by the candidates in the application form shall be collected by the offices of Università Ca' Foscari and processed for the purposes of the procedure and for the management of relations ensuing therefrom.

The provision of said information is compulsory and necessary for the correct implementation of the selection procedure.

The same information may be communicated only to Public Administrations directly involved in the economic and legal position of the candidate hired.

Candidates are entitled to exercise the rights provided in Art. 7 of Italian Leg. Decree 196/2003, including the right of access to the data concerning them, the right to amend, update, complete or delete erroneous or incomplete data or data collected in a manner that is contrary to law, and to object to processing for legitimate reasons.

These rights may be asserted with regard to the Università Ca' Foscari- Venezia, data controller.

Art. 12

Data supervisor

Data Manager: Mr. Patrik Sambo, Director of Teaching Staff Department (tel. +39 041/2348217, +39 041/2348269 e-mail: pdoc.concorsi@unive.it).

Art. 13

Final provisions

For any matters not expressly provided herein, the current provisions of law on the matter shall apply.
