Candidates with disabilities shall specify which support (if any) they require with regard to their handicap to attend the interview.

In their applications candidates should also include the address for their notification, a telephone number, a mobile number and an e-mail address.

The University Administration declines all responsibility for the notifications due to the failure of the candidate to provide a correct address or a failure or delay in notifying about a change to the address given in the application or for any postal or telegraphic services misdeliveries, or due to third parties, unforeseeable events or force majeure.

Candidates must also attach the following to their applications:

- Candidate's curriculum vitae listing their scientific and teaching activities, written in Italian and in English, signed with an original signature and declaration of veracity as provided in Arts. 46 and 47 of Pres. Decree 445/2000;
- Documents confirming the qualifications deemed useful for the selection procedure (except for qualifications issued by other Public Administrations for which candidates must submit the self-executed certificate) and a list signed with original signature;
- list of published works that candidate intends to submit for the purposes of Art. 1 of these competition regulations, signed with original signature;
- Photocopy of valid identity document.

According to the University's actions within the Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HRS4R), candidates are invited to submit a cover letter to their CV.

Qualifications refer to academic qualifications, professional qualifications, specialisations, licenses, training, updates and so on.

European Union citizens may:

- Submit scanned copies of qualifications, that are certified copies of the originals with self-executed affidavit as provided in Arts 19 and 47 of Pres. Decree 445, 28 December 2000 (attachment A); if written in a foreign language, said qualifications shall include a sworn Italian translation performed by embassy or consulate translators or by an official translator;
- or
- Prove that they have the necessary qualifications using the self-executed certificate or self-executed affidavit (Attachment A). The latter mode is the only accepted for qualifications issued by other Public Administrations.

Non-EU citizens with a regular residence permit may submit scanned copies of qualifications, authenticated or true certified copies of the original. The self-executed certificates must be used in accordance with the procedure laid down for EU citizens whenever it is necessary to provide proof of status, facts or personal qualities certifiable or confirmable by Italian public agencies or if the production of self-executed certificates takes place under international agreements between Italy and the applicant's country of origin.

Non-EU citizens without a regular residence permit may submit scanned copies of qualifications, authenticated or true certified copies of the original.

Certificates issued by the relevant authorities of the applicant's Country of origin must be submitted together with a translation into Italian authenticated by the Italian consular authority certifying conformity with the original.

The Administration shall carry out a verification process on the contents of substitute declarations contained in the curriculum vitae.

No reference may be made to documents presented to this or other administrations or to documents attached to the application forms of other selection procedures.

Art. 4 Publications

Candidates must upload their publications in pdf, dividing them into the appropriate four fields of electronic procedure of the capacity of 50 MB each (in each field can be inserted multiple publications grouped into a single file or a .zip folder. It is recommended that the name of the single file or the ones in the compressed folder does not exceed 20 characters).

Published works not uploaded within the closing date shall not be taken into consideration by the Examining Board.

It is not allowed to present publications as link or in a "storage/file sharing on-line" or web pages.

Area Risorse Umane

Ufficio Personale
Docente e CEL

If a candidate presents more publications than required, the Commission will evaluate the publications, in the order specified in the list of publications produced by the candidate, up to the limit provided.

For the purposes of this selection procedure only published works or texts accepted for publication as provided in current law shall be accepted for assessment, along with essays in anthologies and articles published in hard copy or digital format magazines excluding internal notes or departmental reports.

For joint-authored publications the candidates may include a statement confirming their contribution. Otherwise, joint-authored publications may be evaluated provided it is possible to identify the individual contribution of the candidate on the basis of its coherence with their overall scientific activity.

The Examining Board will have access to the publications in digital format only for competition purposes, taking into account the existing legislation concerning publishing and copyright.

Art. 5

Exclusion from selection procedure

Candidates are conditionally admitted to the selection procedure and may be excluded from the procedure at any time for failure to meet the requirements by means of a reasoned Rector's decree.

Failure to comply with requirements laid down in Arts. 2 and 3 herein represents a reason for exclusion from the selection procedure.

Art. 6

Composition of the Examining Board

The Board, made up at least of three members chosen from tenured professors, of which mainly from other universities (also foreign universities), shall be proposed by means of a resolution passed by the Department Board and appointed by a Rector's Decree. The Board may draw upon the support of one or more experts for the language proficiency assessment.

The appointment of the Examining Board must be carried on in compliance with Art. 7 of Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers
The appointment of the Board shall be published online on the University website.

Art. 7

Roles of the Examining Board

The Board shall carry out the preliminary assessment of candidates, providing motivated evaluations of qualifications, curriculum vitae and scientific work, including their doctoral thesis, according to criteria and parameters recognised at international level, identified by means of Ministerial Decree 243, 25 May 2011, to be carried out in accordance with the guidelines for the evaluation in Annex no. 1 of the Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers in compliance with Art. 24 of the Italian Law 240/10.

Following the preliminary assessment the Board will admit the most worthy candidates - 10 to 20 per cent of the original candidates and no less than six in number - to participate in a public discussion of their qualifications and scientific work; all candidates shall be admitted to the discussion should their total number be equal to or less than six.

After the discussion the board will grade the qualifications and each of the published works presented by the candidates admitted to said discussion. The board will draw up a collective overall evaluation of the candidates admitted to the discussion of their qualifications and published works, stating whether they are eligible for the competition and expressing a concise evaluation.

The assessment of candidates involves no written or oral examinations.

The University will publish on November, 6th 2018 on its website at the following address <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ric240> the discussion date, with details of candidates admitted, or the possible postponement of the publication. The said publication is equivalent to notification of the law in effect. Therefore, candidates are required to appear for the discussion, without notice, in the place, the day and hour specified in the notice. Failure to attend this discussion shall be considered explicit outright proof of their decision to withdraw from the selection process.

The Board may use electronic media if these are appropriate for the activities to be carried out.

The Board must conclude its activities within three months of the appointment decree, unless otherwise specified. The closing date may be deferred for proven exceptional motives given by the Board Chair. In the case of failure to conclude activities by the date established, the Rector shall issue a reasoned decree giving rise to procedures for the replacement of members held to be responsible for the delay as well as establishing a new closing date for the conclusion of activities.

Art. 8 Validity of the proceedings

The Board proceedings are attested in the minutes of the meetings, together with the related attachments that shall be sent by the Board Chair to the ARU (Ca' Foscari Human Resources Area) – Ufficio Personale Docente e CEL Settore Concorsi within 7 days after the conclusion of the Board activities for assessment of the proceedings and approval of the minutes by Rector's Decree. Once the minutes have been approved, the proceedings are sent to the recruiting Department Head and published by insertion in the University website at the following address <http://www.unive.it/bandi-ric240>. This insertion will be announced by notice in the Official Gazette (<http://www.gazzettaufficiale.it/index.jsp>). From the date of publication of this notice starts the deadline for any appeal.

Art. 9 Announcement of winner and appointment

Within two months of the receipt of the proceedings, the Department Board proposes to the Board of Governors the choice of the candidate who is comparatively best among those declared eligible as shown by the proceedings of the Examining Board. In case of ex aequo evaluation, the choice must be based on the following criterion:

- Qualitative standards: publications in the repertoires of recognized prestige in the Japanese sector; publications in A-ANVUR journals or in relevant magazines in the scientific field and in books published by prestigious publishing companies in Italy and abroad. There must be a continuity in the candidate's publications.
- Teaching and scientific qualifications: the candidate must have a solid scientific production in the field of Religions and philosophies of Japan; he must also have a proven teaching experience in the same field (Religions and philosophies of Japan).

The resolution will point out, anyhow, the precise reasons for the choice.

Art. 10 Drawing-up of contract

The Administration invites the person concerned to send all documentation required under current legislation and the competition regulations within 30 days of the drawing-up of the individual fixed-term employment contract. The contract shall be drawn up by the Rector or her/his representative on behalf of the University.

The gross annual pay for fixed-term full-time researcher amounts to Euro 34.898,06 in compliance with art 3, par. 6, DPR n. 232/2011.

The contract will specify the causes of termination; in any case is a cause of termination of the contract the annulment of the selection procedure, which is its prerequisite.

The employment start date, bound to the coverage on the external funds in the preamble, shall be established by the recruiting Department on the basis of research and teaching requirements, and depending on funding available and any legal constraints.

Should circumstances arise hindering recruitment - whether for legal, organisational or financial motives, prior to the completion of the selection procedures, this Administration reserves the right not to hire or to delay recruitment.

In the six months prior to the expiration of the research, the researcher is subject to evaluation of teaching and research activities carried out under the contract, even for a possible two-year extension of the contract. The assessment is made on the basis of the procedures, criteria and parameters established by art. 9 of the University Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers in compliance with Art. 24 of the Italian Law 240/10.

The Administration reserves the right, without prejudice to the legal and financial, to proceed with the extension of the contract as required by law.

Art. 11 Incompatibilities

Area Risorse Umane The incompatibilities provided for the employees of public Administration and in particular those resulting from the provisions of Article 53 of Legislative Decree no. 165/2001 are applied to the employment contract established in accordance with this call.

Art. 12 Information about the processing of personal data

Pursuant to Article 13 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 ("Regulation"), candidates are informed that processing of personal data supplied, or otherwise acquired by University, is aimed only at the execution of the selection procedure. Processing of personal data will be carried out at Ca' Foscari University of Venice by authorised staff in the ways and within the limits that are necessary to pursue the aforementioned purpose even with the use of computerized procedures.

Data will be stored according to the rules on the conservation of administrative documentation.

The Processing Controller is Ca' Foscari University of Venice, based in Dorsoduro no. 3246, 30123 Venice (Italy) - certified electronic mail protocollo@pec.unive.it.

Conferment of data is necessary to evaluate candidates' requirements and titles. Failure to indicate them could preclude candidates' evaluation, with consequent exclusion from the selection procedure. In order to participate in the selection, it is not necessary to provide sensitive data (for example, data on health status, sexual orientation, political or trade union opinions). Candidates are therefore asked not to provide such data, unless they were deemed necessary for a better evaluation of their position.

Results of possible intermediate tests and graded lists will be published in accordance with current legislation.

Communications to third parties are not contemplated, except for subjects to whom data must be transmitted in compliance with legal obligations, subjects that perform services on account of University or, on demand, judicial and control bodies. Hired candidate's data will be subjected to diffusion for the fulfillment of transparency obligations in accordance with Legislative Decree n. 33/2013.

Data subjects have the right to obtain by University, in the cases provided for by Regulation, access, rectification, integration, erasure of personal data, restriction of processing or the right to object to such processing (Articles 15 and following of Regulation). Request can be presented, without any formalities, directly contacting the Data Protection Officer of University (dpo@unive.it; Ca' Foscari University of Venice, Dorsoduro no. 3246, 30123 Venice (Italy). Alternatively, it is possible to contact the Controller certified electronic mail protocollo@pec.unive.it).

Data subjects considering that processing of their personal data would be carried out in violation of Regulation have also the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Supervisory Authority (Article 77 of Regulation) or to recourse to the appropriate judicial offices (Article 79 of Regulation).

Art. 13 Data supervisor
