Candidates must upload their publications in pdf, dividing them into the appropriate four fields of electronic procedure of the capacity of 50 MB each (in each field can be inserted multiple publications grouped into a single file or a .zip folder. It is recommended that the name of the single file or the ones in the compressed folder does not exceed 20 characters).

Published works not uploaded within the closing date shall not be taken into consideration by the Examining Board.

It is not allowed to present publications as link or in a "storage/file sharing on-line" or web pages.

If a candidate presents more publications than required, the Commission will evaluate the publications, in the order specified in the list of publications produced by the candidate, up to the limit provided.

For the purposes of this selection procedure only published works or texts accepted for publication as provided in current law shall be accepted for assessment, along with essays in anthologies and articles published in hard copy or digital format magazines excluding internal notes or departmental reports.

For joint-authored publications the candidates may include a statement confirming their contribution. Otherwise, joint-authored publications may be evaluated provided it is possible to identify the individual contribution of the candidate on the basis of its coherence with their overall scientific activity.

The Examining Board will have access to the publications in digital format only for competition purposes, taking into account the existing legislation concerning publishing and copyright.

Art. 5

Exclusion from selection procedure

Cod. Fisc. 80007720271 Candidates are conditionally admitted to the selection procedure and may be excluded from the procedure at any time for failure to meet the requirements by means of a reasoned Rector's decree.

Failure to comply with requirements laid down in Arts. 2 and 3 herein represents a reason for exclusion from the selection procedure.

Art. 6

Composition of the Examining Board

The Board, made up at least of three members chosen from tenured professors, of which mainly from other universities (also foreign universities), shall be proposed by means of a resolution passed by the Department Board and appointed by a Rector's Decree. The Board may draw upon the support of one or more experts for the language proficiency assessment.

The appointment of the Examining Board must be carried out in compliance with Art. 7 of Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers

The appointment of the Board shall be published online on the University website.

Art. 7

Roles of the Examining Board

Area Risorse Umane

Ufficio Personale

The Board shall carry out the preliminary assessment of candidates, providing motivated evaluations of qualifications, curriculum vitae and scientific work, including their doctoral thesis, according to criteria and parameters recognised at international level, identified by means of Ministerial Decree 243, 25 May 2011, to be carried out in accordance with the guidelines for the evaluation in Annex no. 1 of the Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers in compliance with Art. 24 of the Italian Law 240/10.

Following the preliminary assessment the Board will admit the most worthy candidates - 10 to 20 per cent of the original candidates and no less than six in number - to participate in a public discussion of their qualifications and scientific work; all candidates shall be admitted to the discussion should their total number be equal to or less than six.

After the discussion the board will grade the qualifications and each of the published works presented by the candidates admitted to said discussion. The board will draw up a collective overall evaluation of the candidates admitted to the discussion of their qualifications and published works, stating whether they are eligible for the competition and expressing a concise evaluation.

The assessment of candidates involves no written or oral examinations.

as shown by the proceedings of the Examining Board. In case of ex aequo evaluation, the choice must be based on the following criterion:

- The applicant must display a sound scientific output in the field of Arabic (especially Christian Arabic) studies, published by prestigious publishing houses in Italy and abroad and in A-Ranking journals according to the Italian Anvur indices. The applicant must also demonstrate to have an appropriate teaching experience in the same fields (Arabic language and literature, with special regard to Christian Arabic studies).

The resolution will point out, anyhow, the precise reasons for the choice.

Art. 10

Drawing-up of contract

The Administration invites the person concerned to send all documentation required under current legislation and the competition regulations within 30 days of the drawing-up of the individual fixed-term employment contract. The contract shall be drawn up by the Rector or her/his representative on behalf of the University.

The gross annual pay for fixed-term full-time researcher amounts to Euro 34.898,06 in compliance with art 3, par. 6, DPR n. 232/2011.

The contract will specify the causes of termination; in any case is a cause of termination of the contract the annulment of the selection procedure, which is its prerequisite.

The employment start date, bound to the coverage on the external funds in the preamble, shall be established by the recruiting Department on the basis of research and teaching requirements, and depending on funding available and any legal constraints.

Should circumstances arise hindering recruitment - whether for legal, organisational or financial motives, prior to the completion of the selection procedures, this Administration reserves the right not to hire or to delay recruitment.

In the six months prior to the expiration of the research, the researcher is subject to evaluation of teaching and research activities carried out under the contract, even for a possible two-year extension of the contract. The assessment is made on the basis of the procedures, criteria and parameters established by art. 9 of the University Regulations governing the public selections of fixed-term researchers in compliance with Art. 24 of the Italian Law 240/10.

The Administration reserves the right, without prejudice to the legal and financial, to proceed with the extension of the contract as required by law.
