

When Indigenous Rights Become Optional

Sámi Experiences and Global Human Rights Failures

28th April 2026, 16.00-18.00
Room 24 San Sebastiano

The discussion will feature:

Áslat Holmberg

Freelancer working for indigenous rights. Former president of the Sámi Council

Vibeke Persen

Double bachelor degree student in economics and leadership, first year member of Venice Diplomatic Society

The event will include a PowerPoint presentation about the Sámi history and culture, followed by a panel session with the invited guests and video testimonies from protestors of the different demonstrations that are explained during the presentation. There will also be given time for the audience to present questions to the invited guests and the moderator.

Mandatory reservation through link <https://VDS-when-indigenous-rights-become-optional.eventbrite.it> or QR code

For information: board@venicediplomaticsociety.com
@venicediplomaticsociety | @Venice Diplomatic Society

This initiative has been partially financed through Ca' Foscari University's funds for student activities.