

Relational Accountability of Mother Earth: Revitalizing & Restoring Land and Water

NFRF-I Consortium Meeting 2026

OPEN SEMINARS

1 September 2026

10:00–12:30

Water Quality Through the Lens of Natural Scientists

Kim Luong

Eawag, Swiss Federal Institute of Aquatic Science and Technology

13.30-16.30

Howing Workshop:

a performance lecture and experimental workshop on how to communicate the climate emergency using artistic methods and practices.

Jen Rae

Centre for Reworlding and University of Liverpool

San Giobbe, Polo Rispoli

Cannaregio 873, Fondamenta San Giobbe, Venezia

3 September 2026

13:30–16:00

Eco-pedagogical workshop: Introducing Cycle 0 - a methodological lens that repositions the “beginning” of participatory research

Jonathan Joseph, Nomthandonzo

Pukwana, Bruce Damons,

Mandela Nelson

Nelson Mandela University

Ca' Dolfin, Aula Magna Silvio Trentin

Dorsoduro 3859/A, Venezia

Hosted by:

Ca' Foscari
University of Venice

Government of Canada

Gouvernement
du Canada

The project "Relational Accountability of Mother Earth: Revitalizing and Restoring Land and Water" draws upon research supported by the Government of Canada's New Frontiers in Research Fund (NFRF).