Digital Culture, Student Collaboration and Career Opportunities between Vietnam and Italy

8 October 2026, 10:00–10:25

Aula D, Ca' Capello

This event is intended for students interested in digital culture, international exchange, and future career opportunities. Through a short presentation and group discussion, students will explore how language, social media, and digital tools can support cultural understanding between Vietnam and Italy. The event will also introduce potential internship opportunities with companies and organisations working in communication, education, tourism, and international cooperation

Organizer: Trang Phan (DSAAM)
