

Scientific Committee

Rosa Caroli

Dipartimento di Studi Linguistici e Culturali Comparati

Department of Linguistics and Comparative Cultural Studies

Bruna Bianchi

Dipartimento di Studi Linguistici e Culturali Comparati

Department of Linguistics and Comparative Cultural Studies

Sara De Vido

Dipartimento di Economia

Department of Economics

Geraldine Ludbrook

Dipartimento di Studi Linguistici e Culturali Comparati

Department of Linguistics and Comparative Cultural Studies

Dipartimento di Economia

Campus Economico San Giobbe
Cannaregio 873, 30121 Venezia
www.unive.it/dip.economia
www.unive.it/dep.economics (ENG)

Dipartimento di Studi Linguistici e Culturali Comparati

Palazzo Cosulich
Dorsoduro 1405, 30123 Venezia
www.unive.it/dslcc
www.unive.it/dep.dslcc (ENG)

Con il patrocinio di Women's international league of peace and freedom (Wilpf), Geneva Office, e Wilpf Italia.

DONNE DISARMANTI DISARMING WOMEN

22-23 NOVEMBRE 2018

22-23 NOVEMBER 2018

Image: Women for Peace by Meinard Craighead for the Women's Peace Alliance

Sala B, Ca' Bernardo
Dorsoduro 3199, Venezia

Giovedì 22 novembre, ore 15:00-19:00

Thursday 22 November, 3 p.m. – 7 p.m.

Saluti istituzionali

Welcome Addresses

Introduzione

Introduction

Bruna Bianchi, Università Ca' Foscari Venezia

Sessione I - La prospettiva internazionale

Session I – The International Perspective

Was the Women's Movement always international?

Jill Liddington, University of Leeds

Arms and the women: the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom on Disarmament, 1945-1975

Catia Confortini, Wellesley College, Boston

Coffee break

'Saving Brown Women' from the bomb? Racism, colonialism and transnational solidarity in feminist anti-nuclear activism

Catherine Eschle, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow

Heirs of Rosalie Bertell? Her meaning for a women's movement in view of the new war against all life and Mother Earth herself today

Claudia Von Werlhof, University of Innsbruck

Dibattito

Discussion

Venerdì 23 novembre, ore 9:00-13:30

Friday 23 November, 9 a.m. – 1.30 p.m.

Sessione II – Prospettive nazionali

Session II – National Perspectives

La WILPF Italia contro il nucleare

WILPF Italia against the Bomb

Giovanna Pagani, Presidente onoraria di WILPF Italia

Prima che sia troppo tardi. La mobilitazione contro il nucleare dell'Unione Donne Italiane nel corso degli anni Cinquanta

Before it is too late. The Unione Donne Italiane's anti-nuclear mobilization in the 50s

Rachele Ledda, Università di Napoli L'Orientale

«Eravamo commosse dalla sincerità del Papa». La missione di Women Strike for Peace in Vaticano, aprile 1963

"We were moved by the Pope's sincerity". The WSP's Pilgrimage to the Vatican, April 1963

Bruna Bianchi, Università Ca' Foscari Venezia

Coffee break

Built, voted against, and abandoned: 40 years after – Zwentendorf and women's activism in Austria

Dagmar Wernitznig, Ljubljana University

Anti-nuclear movements and the concepts of 'motherhood' in post-war Japan: a feminist perspective

Rin Odawara, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

Dibattito

Discussion
