

Jan de Laverrier, Portrait of Jean Mérol, after 1456, Bibliothèque Nationale de France, from Wikimedia Commons

Ca' Foscari
University of Venice

Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage

Center for Renaissance and Early Modern Thought

New Paradigms of History of Knowledge

4-5 December 2019, Ca' Foscari Esposizioni

4 December

8:45 Opening

Inaugural lecture

9:00 Rens Bod

Integrating knowledges: a global history of humanities and science

9:45 H. Darrel Rutkin

New paradigms in the history of knowledge: The case of astrology

10:30 Break

10:45 Marieke M.A. Hendriksen

Understanding knowledge: a plea for a long durée social and cultural history

11:30 Bernd Kulawik

The Accademia de lo Studio de l'Architettura (Rome, c. 1535–1555)

12:15 Clara Stella

On the last things. Women and Eschatology in Sixteenth-Century Italy

13:00 Break

14:00 Christian Henkel

The Scientific Method and Eclecticism of Johann Christoph Sturm

14:45 Chiara Beneduce

John Buridan on Sexual Pleasure

15:30 Vittoria Feola

Antiquaries as Actors of Knowledge in Violent Times

16:15 Francesco Paolo De Ceglia

Criminals, saints and some vampires. The natural, the preternatural and the supernatural in the different early modern European cultural contexts

17:00 Break

17:15 Sven Dupré

Presentation of the Journal for the History of Knowledge

18:00 Keynote lecture

Simon Schaffer

The silent trade: material measures and knowledge traditions

5 December

9:00 José Filipe Silva

Augustine on Perceptual Rationality

9:45 Tuomas Vaura

Peter of Trabibus on Powers and Forms

10:30 Christian Kny

Nicolaus of Cusa on Rational Perception

11:15 Break

11:30 Lukas M. Verburgt

Beyond knowledge: a programmatic outline

12:15 Andrew Hui

Confucius the Stoic: Matteo Ricci and the Encounter between Western and Chinese Philosophy

13:00 Break

14:00 Paolo Rossini

Descartes and the affair Morin: How Descartes' political and personal affiliations affected the French Reception

14:45 Davide Crippa

A Case Study in Cultural History of Mathematics. Bernard Bolzano's Examination to Become a Mathematics Professor (1804)

15:30 Stefano Gulizia

Through a Lamb Darkly: Venetian Experiments with Animal Electricity circa 1600

16:15 Daniele Cozzoli

Global History, Microhistory and History of Science and Technology

17:00 break

17:15 Luca Molà

The Rhetoric and Practice of Patenting in Renaissance Italy

18:00 Keynote lecture

Mordechai Feingold

Libertas Philosophandi and the transformation of early modern knowledge

Organizer: Marco Sgarbi marco.sgarbi@unive.it