

Ca' Foscari
University of Venice Department of Humanities

Conference organizer:
Andrea-Bianka Znorovszky
Department of Humanities,
Ca' Foscari University of Venice
Flavia de Rubeis
Department of Humanities,
Ca' Foscari University of Venice

This conference falls under the dissemination activities of the project "Marian Apocryphal Representations in Art: From Hagiographic Collections to Church Space and Liturgy in Fourteenth-to-Sixteenth-Century France" (MARIA). This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No. 793043. The information and views set out in this study reflect only the author's view and the Agency (REA) is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information it contains.

image: Stefan Lochner, Madonna of the Rose Bower

Salve Regina. New Approaches on Marian Devotion from the Middle Ages to the Council of Trent

28-30 September 2020

Ca' Foscari University of Venice
Aula Baratto, Ca' Foscari - Dorsoduro 3246

The conference brings together experts from more than fifteen countries to share their research focused on Marian devotion during a three-day conference. Hosted by Ca' Foscari University of Venice, Departments of Humanities and Philosophy and Cultural Heritage, the conference seeks to explore and offer an overview on Marian cult in the Middle Ages in the light of current debates and approaches. It focuses on the emergence of Marian devotion and its interactions with religious, social, and cultural factors that determined both the evolution and the rise of Mary as a prominent figure throughout the Middle Ages until the Council of Trent.