NO-LEVEL BRICK SEMINAR 2020 FOR JAPANESE LANGUAGE EDUCATION

The seminar consists of a series of online meetings and discussions for anybody interested in Japanese language education. Its focus is on critical and transformative pedagogy for active and socially responsible learning.

The meetings and discussions draw on seminal, up-to-date and relevant literature in the field of applied linguistics, sociology and education to understand the current state of the language education and envision further development of the pedagogy.

Participants are expected to be actively involved in the organization of the meetings and discussions. The seminar welcomes not only research-focused academics and students writing a thesis but also teaching-focused academics and students not yet writing a thesis.

Convenors:

Prof. Marcella MARIOTTI, Ca' Foscari University of Venice

Dr. Takuya KOJIMA, Ca' Foscari University of Venice
