

Since 2013, Franck Lecomte is Legal Secretary at the Court of Justice of the European Union (Chambers of Judge Camelia Toader). He studied at the Universities of Dijon and Lyons II (France). Later, he was Researcher at the European University Institute, Florence (Italy). During that time, he was Visiting Researcher at the London School of Economics and Political Science (UK) and the Interuniversity Research Centre on Globalization and Work (Canada). He previously worked as Teaching Fellow in the University of Lyons II and Visiting Lecturer in various French universities. In addition to labour and social security law – his initial field of expertise – he has developed a solid knowledge of consumer law, environmental law and private international law. He has penned and co-authored several articles in English and French on a variety of topics of EU law published in Europe (Revue internationale de droit économique, Droit social, Revue des Affaires Européennes, Revue du droit public, ERA FORUM) and the USA (Columbia Journal of European Law).