

Maria Khayutina (LMU)

Concepts of polity and space in Early Chinese epigraphy

22 March (Tuesday) 2022, 10:15 am (CET)

Venue: Sala A, Ca' Vendramin dei Carmini, 3462 Venice

Maria Khayutina is a Guest Professor at the Institute of Sinology of the Ludwig-Maximilians-University of Munich. She has published broadly on social and political history of Early China, and especially on early polity formation and kinship organization, on the production of social and political structures, historical geography, memory culture and the history of concepts. She recently published an article in Early China (44, 2021) titled: "The Beginning of Cultural Memory Production in China and the Memory Policy of the Zhou Royal House During the Western Zhou Period (Ca. Mid-11th–Early 8th c. BCE). Her forthcoming book Kinship, Marriage and Politics in Early China (13-8 c. BCE) in the Light of Ritual Bronze Inscriptions is planned for publication with Routledge.

Registration is required for both on-site and online attendance

For online attendance, please register <https://unive.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZ0tduGorT0jGde4aGcZwW7V6SIKyTqj0btb>. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

For on-site attendance, please register up to two days in advance at: https://apps.unive.it/prenotazioni/p/eventidsaam?_lang=en up to two days in advance

For information, please contact: maddalena.barenghi@unive.it