SCALE

These lectures will explore how the concept of scale can advance both academic and artistic practices

LECTURE #1

The first session will focus on music: the discussion will address concepts such as horizontal and linear development and consider how shifts between the macro and micro perspectives can influence our perception of music.

20th november, 15.00 - 17.00
Auditorium Ca' Longa, Camplus S. Marta

LECTURE #2

This session will encourage students to explore how the concept of scale can be applied within their respective disciplines.

25th november, 10.30 - 12.30
Sala Video Fondaco, Camplus S. Marta
