

Rethinking Enmity

China-US Relations and Global Peace

Monday, 17 March 2025

15.00 Welcoming remarks

Francesca Santulli (Director of the Department of Linguistics and Comparative Cultural Studies, Ca' Foscari University of Venice)

15.15 Introduction

Juan Alberto Ruiz Casado and Duccio Basosi (Ca' Foscari University of Venice)

15.30-18.30 PANEL I

Chair: Francesca Santulli (Ca' Foscari University of Venice)

Discussant: Vanni Pettinà (Ca' Foscari University of Venice)

Speakers

Oliver Turner (University of Edinburgh), China, the United States, and the international politics of frustration

José Ángel Ruiz Jimenez (University of Granada), Towards a global armed bipolarity? The impact of the Ukrainian war in the world order and the paths to peace

Astrid Nordin and Natasha Lock (King's College London), Courtside Statecraft: Anger, Enmity and Sino-US relations

Tuesday, 18 March 2025

9.30-12.30 PANEL II

Chair: Duccio Basosi (Ca' Foscari University of Venice)

Discussant: Beatrice Gallelli (Ca' Foscari University of Venice)

Speakers

Chengxin Pan (University of Macau), Rethinking US-China enmity: Towards a quantum holographic ontology for peace and cooperation

Alexandra Homolar (University of Warwick), Framing enmity through loss: Populist victimhood narratives in the US and China

Juan Alberto Ruiz Casado (Ca' Foscari University of Venice), International privilege, the construction of "threats", and the prospects of war over Taiwan

12.30-13.00 Concluding remarks

| Room B, Ca' Bernardo, Dorsoduro 3199, Venice

Admission is free until all available seats are filled. The meeting will be held in English.

Contacts:

Juan Alberto Ruiz Casado, juan.ruizcasado@unive.it

Duccio Basosi, duccio.basosi@unive.it